

<http://uknowledge.uky.edu/>

University of Kentucky Libraries hosts the following four open access journals on UKnowledge. If you or your colleagues would like to know more about the library's journal hosting services, please contact Adrian Ho at adrian.ho@uky.edu.

Frontiers in Public Health
Services and Systems Research features peer-reviewed articles that address public health services, public health delivery systems, quality improvement methods in public health settings, and/or the impact of these endeavors on population health.
<http://uknowledge.uky.edu/frontiersinphssr/>

The Kentucky Journal of Higher Education Policy and Practice provides a forum for regional, national, and international scholarship examining issues related to higher education practice, policy, law, and research. <http://uknowledge.uky.edu/kjhepp/>

University of Kentucky
Journal of Undergraduate Scholarship

Kaleidoscope is a refereed undergraduate research journal that publishes reports of unique experiential endeavors of UK undergraduate students. <http://uknowledge.uky.edu/kaleidoscope/>

KENTUCKY UKnowledge
Nomenclatura: aproximaciones a los estudios hispánicos

Nomenclatura is a graduate research journal dedicated to interdisciplinary scholarship on the literary and cultural traditions of the Hispanic world. <http://uknowledge.uky.edu/naeh/>

Scholarship Unlocked: The Future of Open Access

By Dr. David Solomon

Michigan State University

Panel Speakers

Brian L. Frye, UK College of Law

Neal Hutchens, UK College of Education

Stephen Wrinn, University Press of Kentucky

William T. Young Library UKAA Auditorium

October 24, 2012 2:00 – 3:30 pm

UK
UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY
Libraries

DAVID SOLOMON
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Dr. David Solomon is a Professor of Medicine at Michigan State University. He specializes in performance assessment, program evaluation, curriculum development and distance learning. Dr. Solomon is a founding editor of an open access journal, Medical Education Online, and a founding Board Member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association. He is also the author of Developing Open Access Journals: A Practical Guide. His current research is focused on the growth of OA publishing and issues concerning APC (Article Processing Charge) funded OA publications. Some of his recent papers are freely available at <http://openaccesspublishing.org/>. Dr. Solomon's online profile is at <http://www.linkedin.com/pub/david-solomon/7/9A1/223/>.

NEAL HUTCHENS
UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

Neal Hutchens joined the Department of Educational Policy Studies and Evaluation in Fall 2009. His scholarship centers on law and policy matters in higher education, with much of his research focused on institutional autonomy concerns and issues dealing with speech and expression. Professor Hutchens earned a Ph.D. in education policy with specialization in higher education from the University of Maryland. He earned his J.D. from the University of Alabama School of Law, where he graduated summa cum laude and was a member of the Alabama Law Review. His scholarship has appeared in the Journal of College and University Law, Journal of Law and Education, and Journal of Student Affairs Research and Practice. Professor Hutchens' researcher profile is at http://works.bepress.com/neal\_hutchens/.

BRIAN L. FRYE
UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

Brian L. Frye is an Assistant Professor at the University of Kentucky College of Law. His research focuses on legal issues affecting artists and arts organizations. He teaches Civil Procedure, Copyright, Intellectual Property, Nonprofit Organizations, and Art Law. Prior to joining the University of Kentucky, Professor Frye was a Visiting Assistant Professor of Law at Hofstra University School of Law. He was a litigation associate at Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, and he clerked for Judge Andrew J. Kleinfeld of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and Justice Richard B. Sanders of the Washington Supreme Court. More information about Professor Frye is available from his researcher profile: http://works.bepress.com/brian\_l\_frye/

STEPHEN WRINN
UNIVERSITY PRESS OF KENTUCKY

Stephen Wrinn started as Director of The University Press of Kentucky in April 2002. He also serves as the liaison for the Thomas D. Clark Foundation, which supports the publication of books about Kentucky and the Appalachian region. Mr. Wrinn has worked with a wide range of prominent scholars and public intellectuals during his career, including Thomas D. Clark, bell hooks, William H. McNeill, Paul K. Conkin, and George C. Herring, among others. Books that he has published have won numerous awards, including the Washington Post Notable Book of the Year in History, the Herbert Hoover Library Prize for the Best Book in American History, and the Philadelphia Inquirer Book of the Year in Cultural Studies. Mr. Wrinn is the author of a book, Civil Rights in the Whitest State: Vermont's Perceptions of Civil Rights, 1945-1968.

