Dear Anne:

It was good to get your letter. I would be glad to accept an appointment to the Memorials Committee for the Southeastern Chapter, but my present workload and obligations will not enable me to take on additional duties at this time.

I would suggest that you offer this appointment to Robert B. Wallace, of the Dade County Law Library. Bob has been active in the Southeastern Chapter for many years, and attends most of its meetings. He personally knows a great number of people in the Southeastern Chapter, and in my opinion, would do a good job on this committee.

Thanks for thinking of me concerning this appointment. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
State Law Librarian
