Southeastern Chapter AALL
Lucile Elliott Scholarship Committee
Report 1968-69

After a dearth of applications we received a total of eight applications, three from present or future members of the University of Puerto Rico Law Library, one from a law firm librarian in Florida, three from law school librarians and one from a newcomer to our profession in a law school library. List of applicants enclosed.

The Committee, aware of the financial conditions of our chapter funds and the more liberal allowances available for educational purposes on the national level, including our AALL scholarship funds and grants, came to the decision to split the $200.00 accumulated this year and award two scholarships, one to a law school librarian to assist him in obtaining his law degree this year and one to a newcomer to enable her to become acquainted with our chapter members and their work at the New Orleans Chapter meeting.

We hope that those left out this year, will be considered in the future. The Committee has awarded the 1968-69 Lucile Elliott Scholarships to:

Beverly L. Boyer
Assistant Librarian, Law Library,
University of South Carolina and to

Paul Willis, Acting Law Librarian
University of Kentucky

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Polk Green
