Dear Steve:

Thanks for your letter about the appointment of a Chapter Government Relations Committee. The last issue of the Southeastern Chapter's newsletter, The Southeastern Law Librarian, has an article concerning government relations and monitoring state legislation. We included a form soliciting volunteers to help. Unfortunately, very few responses were received.

One member has agreed to serve as the Chair of our Government Relations Committee. Her name and address follow:

M. Kathleen Reis
Smith, Currie & Hancock
2600 Harris Tower
Peachtree Center
233 Peachtree St., NW
Atlanta, GA 30043-6601

404-521-3800

I will be working with Kathleen during the next several weeks to identify one person in each of the Southeastern states to help us. We will also try to identify publications in each state that can be monitored in order to get track of legislation.

Thanks.

Sincerely,

Timothy L. Coggins
