Philadelphia Convention, June 1956

The Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries held a breakfast meeting at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel Coffee Shop on Wednesday, June 26 while the Association was meeting. Miss Corinne Bass, President, presided with the following members present: Mr. Richard W. Neal, Alabama Supreme Court Library; Miss Janet Riley, Loyola University; Mr. John Folger, Georgia State Library; Miss Hazel Key, University of Virginia; Miss Corinne Bass, University of Mississippi; and Miss Mary Oliver, University of North Carolina.

Miss Bass announced that Miss Jane Oliver, formerly president of the chapter, had married Mr. Thomas Green, Jr. of the University of Georgia School of Law faculty. Appreciation was expressed for the excellent work Mrs. Green had done as President and as a member of the chapter.

It was announced that the next meeting of the Chapter will be held at Lexington, Ky., August 23-25. Mr. Folger reported on the tentative program for the Kentucky meeting, which is being held in conjunction with the Southeastern Conference of Law Teachers.

It was suggested by Miss Oliver that since one of our greatest problems seems to be the recruitment of personnel for the Law Libraries, we might consider a publicity program directed at the Library Schools and the Law Schools particularly within the Southeast. This program might be aimed at informing librarians, library school deans and students of the opportunities within the field.

After a short discussion of the next issue of the Newsletter, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary W. Oliver
Acting Secretary

Announcements

The Nominating Committee for the Southeastern Chapter is composed of Miss Jeanne Tillman, Law Librarian, Wake Forest College, Winston-Salem, N.C. and Mrs. Margaret M. Pendegrast Law Librarian of the Mobile County Public Law Library, 121 S. Royal St., Mobile 21, Ala. Nominations are open for the offices of President and Secretary-Treasurer. Please send any names you wish to suggest to Mrs. Pendegrast or Miss Tillman as soon as possible.

News Notes

Miss Lucile Elliott, formerly Law Librarian at the University of North Carolina left for England the middle of April. After spending several weeks there buying material for the Law Library at the University, she went to Germany where she is planning to stay for an indefinite period. Her address is 28B Laisonstrasse, Bad Godesberg, Germany.

Miss Minnette Massey of the University of Miami is currently enrolled at New York University where she is taking a course in summer school.

The long awaited and long planned move of Wake Forest College is an accomplished fact. The college is now on its new campus at Winston-Salem, North Carolina where the Law Library is occupying part of a new air-conditioned law school building.

Miss Caroline Heriot has joined the staff of the Law Library at the University of North Carolina. She is a graduate of the Library School at the University and has had a year of law at George Washington University. For the past two years she has been employed in the Naval Ordinance Library in Washington, D.C.
