The Lucile Elliott Scholarship Committee for the year 1972-73 consisted of Mary P. Green, Vanderbilt University Law Library, Vivian L. Wilson, Wake Forest University Law Library, and Susan D. Csaky, University of Kentucky Law Library.

A total of $100.00 was allocated for the scholarship, a decrease of $50.00 from last year's amount. In view of this somewhat limited amount available for scholarship, the main problem for the Committee was to establish some sort of financial guide line in evaluating applications of equal merits. For this reason, the question concerning the financial need was extended to include a review of the applicant's employer's policy in support of travel or education expenses. (Copies of the scholarship announcement and questionnaire are attached.) The Committee should like to suggest that this inquiry be extended to include a question whether the applicant is seeking financial support from another source.

The Committee received a total of 3 applications: 2 for support of library studies while actively employed in a law library; 1 for support of travel to the Seattle meeting. The Committee awarded the scholarship to Mrs. Gloria M. Frederick from the University of North Carolina Law Library staff.
Finally, it is the sad duty of the Committee to report that Miss Lucile Elliott, in whose honor the scholarship was established, passed away this past May. It is an unexpected, yet perhaps fitting coincidence that this year's scholarship recipient is working for the same Institution where Miss Elliott worked as law librarian and from where she retired in 1955. It is the sincere hope of the Committee that awarding of the scholarship can be continued in memory of her service and many contributions to law librarianship both on the national level and the Southeastern Chapter in particular.
