Miss Mary Oliver
Assistant Law Librarian
University of North Carolina
Chapel Hill, North Carolina

Dear Mary:

First I want to congratulate you and Miss Elliott on one of the best law library meetings I have ever attended. Not only was this meeting very pleasant from a social standpoint, but it was decidedly inspirational in attendance, contacts, and accomplished purpose. I want to thank you both for your hospitality and the wonderful time you showed our group.

I have discussed with Dean Prince the idea of some representation on the program of the Southeastern Law Teachers group next fall. He was very cooperative and receptive to the plan of having a librarian speak on the program. Though no date has as yet been set, the meeting will probably be in September, and I am sure that we can look forward to a very pleasant integration into the Southeastern Law Teachers entire meeting. I might add that Dean Prince was very enthusiastic concerning the co-operative building program which we set up for our first project.

Thank you again for a stimulating meeting and your accompanying hospitality. With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Sarah Leverette
