Dear Ruth:

When I saw Dillard Gardner in Colorado Springs, he told me that he would not be able to attend the Southeastern Chapter meeting in Atlanta, but that he would like for his assistant, Mrs. Mary C. Broughton, to attend. He seemed to think that since Mrs. Broughton doesn't know many of the members, she might appreciate a special invitation and that she would like to make arrangements for a ride with someone who may be coming from that area. I have recently had a note from Dillard saying again that he does not expect to attend but that Mrs. Broughton may come. Anything you can do in this connection will be very much appreciated. I have written to Mary Oliver also telling her of the situation.

I surely enjoyed seeing you in Colorado Springs and wish we could have had more time together.

Helen Hargrave was on the plane with me coming back. She was still planning to come to our meeting. I think that having her there will be quite an addition.

Your plans are excellent and I am sure the meeting will be a great success.

Sincerely,

Corinne Bass
