Dear Ruth:

I think that it is very appropriate to ask Helen Hargrave and Dillard Gardner to be our guests at Southeastern. Registration funds and balance in the treasury should be ample.

There seems no reason to ask Mrs. Broughton on that basis. Special invitation, etc. should be sufficient. Thank you for taking care of it.

Let's think about the trip to Jekyll Island. I should enjoy it so much. On the other hand, I have so little time between semesters.

Have you written to Helen Hargrave lately?

Sincerely,

Corinne Bass, President
Southeastern Chapter, A. A. L. L.
