The recent SE Chapter Institute on Law Library Administration in Atlanta, April 5 & 6, was a great success. Betty Taylor and Lamar Woodard, Co-Directors of the Institute, are to be complimented. Another institute is being planned for next year. Please express your preferences for the time, place, and subject.

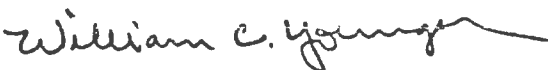

Plan to attend the SE Chapter breakfast meeting, Wednesday morning, 7:30-9:30 a.m., June 26, at the annual A.A.L.L. meeting in St. Paul. The Southwestern Chapter has invited the SE Chapter to meet with them in April of 1976 in New Orleans. We will discuss this and other matters of Chapter business as well as have a good meal and fellowship. We have to make reservations for this breakfast, so please let our Secretary/Treasurer, Mrs. Nancy Jo Kitchen, know that you will be there.

It is election time for our officers for the 1974-76 term. The enclosed ballot shows the nominations of the Nominating Committee. There were no further nominations from the membership under the provisions of our Constitution. Please return your ballot to Nancy by return mail.

Make your plans to attend the Southeastern Chapter A.A.L.L. and Southeastern Chapter A.A.L.S. meeting in Charleston, South Carolina this coming August. Professor Jon Schultz of the University of South Carolina Law Library is program chairman. He promises a good program.

Our President, Pearl Von Allmen, is seriously ill. She has been in a coma now for about six weeks. Let us all pray she has a complete recovery.

Best Wishes,

William C. Younger

P.S. A word of caution on hotel reservations for all SE Chapter and A.A.L.L. meetings! The only way to be sure of a room when you arrive is to make a guaranteed reservation with first night paid in advance.
