Dear Harriet:

I am so very glad that Kate Wallach has agreed to accept nomination for president-elect of Southeastern Chapter, A. A. L. L. As I wrote you before, the next Newsletter will ask that suggestions of officers be sent to the Nominating Committee, the election will be by mail ballot with provision for write-in vote. Of course, none of this should change the results, but seems to be required by procedure as set up by Constitution, etc.

Yes, I understood that Minnette wanted to be relieved of the job of secretary-treasurer. I just hoped that she might change her mind. The preferences of Dorothy Salmon and Kate should certainly be given great weight. Since you ask for other suggestions, mine would be Stanley Bougas or Ruth Corry.

Thanks for all your help.

Sincerely,

Corinne Bass
