Dear Jane:

I hope you are having a wonderful time at being happily married.

I going over your correspondence again, I notice that in your letter to Carol Moreland you asked that we be allowed about three hours for Chapter meeting at A. A. L. L. in Philadelphia. Will you kindly let me know some of the things you were planning to take up at that meeting?

The letter from Frances Farmer asking for Chapter Annual Report which you forwarded to me has been received. I note from Chapter correspondence, that Sarah prepared this report for 1954-55 and sent it to Mary for transmittal. I have asked Sarah to prepare the report again this year, as before. I told Sarah that I was writing to you and Mary asking that you send direct to her suggestions of items which should be included. According to Frances' letter, the report should be sent promptly. Will you please send me a copy of your suggestions?

No doubt you have a million pleasant things other than Chapter matters that you might be thinking of, but I thought that perhaps you might want to summarize some of your own accomplishments. Moreover, I assure you that all help is thankfully received.

Are you planning to come to the Lexington meeting with Dr. Green? It would be so good to see you.

Sincerely,

Corinne Bass, President
Southeastern Chapter, A. A. L. L.
