I have a few thoughts on the Rochester convention: first, the local arrangements committee did a very good job in hosting the convention. Of the few problems, most of them were due to the City of Rochester, itself, the need to use two hotels, and the unfamiliarity of the hotels with large conventions.

There were too many formal meetings. There was not enough free time for us to gather in one location and meet fellow librarians. I hope that the San Francisco local arrangements committee sets aside time in the afternoon daily for people to meet in a specified room, where soft drinks will be served. Then, we can easily meet each other. I raise this because I look forward to the Convention so that I will meet in person people I have spoken to during the year either over the telephone or by letter.

At future Southeastern Chapter breakfasts, I believe that there should be fixed pre-arranged seating. It is nice to sit with your friends at meals. I plead guilty to doing it. But I know that I should meet other people, especially in our chapter. The only way we can meet each other is to sit apart from our friends at meals. When we stood up and introduced ourselves, I noticed that librarians from the same state were gathered at the same table. It will take some time to work out the seating arrangement on an individual basis; or one state representative at each table. But it is worth the effort. Let's try it in San Francisco.

Some year, the Southeastern Chapter will host the national convention. We should begin preparing for this event. We should organize a shadow local arrangements committee, to begin making plans. They will serve as a clearing house for ideas, complaints, suggestions as to the smooth operation of the convention made by us. They would talk to members of previous local arrangements committees to learn the nitty gritty. There is no time like the present to start. Let us begin.
S.E.'s business meeting

The breakfast - business meeting of the SouthEastern Chapter of A.A.L.L. was held in the Holiday Inn, Rochester, New York on June 27th, 1978. After a splendid breakfast, hosted by Bill Gaunt, was served, eaten and enjoyed, the business portion ensued. Over seventy five people were in attendance.

Caroline Heriot, the SouthEastern Chapter's President, called the meeting to order. She thanked for us Bill Gaunt and Bill Farmer for sponsoring this breakfast.

Then, Lamar Woodard gave the Treasurer's report, which showed a small positive balance. He urged everyone to pay his or her dues immediately, so that we will stay on a firm financial footing. Lamar requested that each of us get more people to join the Chapter. We now have 195 paid up members.

The three scholarship winners were announced and introduced to the group.

The results of the election of officers were announced. Ann Butler is our new President. Robin Mill is our new Vice President, President/Elect. Kathy Price who was elected Secretary/Treasurer resigned because of her election to the Executive Board of A.A.L.L. Caroline Heriot will announce shortly the procedure we must follow to elect someone in Kathy's stead. Vocally, we congratulated Kathy Price on her election to national office, while regretting not having her to serve on our board for the next few years.

Bill James, Law Librarian at the University of Kentucky, spoke on the August meeting of the SouthEastern Chapter in Lexington. See pages 5, 6, and 7 of this issue of SELL for details and forms.

Gene Teitelbaum, Editor-in-Chief of the SOUTH EASTERN LAW LIBRARIAN, addressed the group on the need for materials for the newsletter. (Afterwards, several people volunteered to contribute copy to future issues of SELL.) He mentioned as possible topics the continuation of our state legislative information series and listings of duplicate materials for sale or swap.

A proposal was made to hold a mid-winter meeting of the SouthEastern Chapter in Puerto Rico with another Chapter, possibly, the Washington D.C. group. This suggestion will be investigated further.

As is our custom, in turn, each person stood up and introduced her or himself to the assembled.

There being no further business, at 8:18a.m., the meeting was adjourned.
I am rather disappointed in this volume. I expected a better job from the Marquis Company. This book contains only 18,000 entries of prominent judges, lawyers and legal educators. The American Bench (Reviewed by me in 3 SELL 73(1978) contained 15,000 entries on judges alone.

Not only does this work have a small number of people listed, but the actual rationale for inclusion is beyond me. Their "Standards for Admission" are set out on page VII of the book, however, in practice they are not followed. The Standards say "Chief Justices of state and territorial supreme courts and judges of state courts of appeal ..." are included. Does this mean all appellate judges are listed? Or just the Chief Justice of the highest state court?

I tested the volume against names of members of the Kentucky Supreme Court. Our Chief Justice, Scott Reed, is mentioned only by name, title and address in WWinAL. However, a fourteen line biography of him can be found in WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. 39th Edition, 1976-77 at page 2592. Several associate justices of the Kentucky Supreme Court are not listed at all. These men are listed in The American Bench.

Neither of the three deans of the University of Louisville Law School are listed. I saw only one University of Louisville law professor included and he is one of the younger members of the faculty. WWinAL's criteria for inclusion of educators is "Deans and eminent professors at leading law schools." Does this mean at U of L isn't a leading law school? I hope not.

Likewise, for attorneys, their selection is uneven. I could not find the names of several of the prominent attorneys in Louisville. But I noticed that a 1975 University of Louisville Law School graduate "made" the volume.

There is no excuse not to list deans of law schools or justices of the highest state courts. The publisher indicates by a * those biographical sketches which were written by the editorial staff and not verified by the biographee. These men's biographies are easily available in other reference books.

CONCLUSION: The listings are not definitive. Uneven is a better word to denote the coverage in this volume. I do not recommend WWinAL for purchase. You will do better with The American Bench and Directory of Law Teachers. If you do buy it, a caveat with skull and cross bones, should be taped to the book's spine reading: "Beware, this volume is not complete." I shall do so to our copy after I finish editing this issue of SELL.

An excellent reference tool is the Dalhousie University's "Guide to periodicals in the Sir James Dunn Law Library." 1974 edition, 162 pages long, paperback. This guide contains 1086 entries. I reach for it immediately when I have a new periodical title to catalog. Prof. Christian Wiktor should be commended for a job well done on this volume. I have just written to discover if there is a later edition available.

Back in 1975, I wrote for it and received free of charge a copy. The address is:

Martha W. Rush, Associate Law Librarian at the University of Louisville, has informed me that at their display booth at the Special Libraries Association's annual convention in Kansas City, Missouri this past June, Highsmith advertised their new guide labels, peelable from backing sheets, on white paper with red ink saying, among other messages, SUPERSEDED ON RESERVE. FIRST VOLUME ISSUED. LATEST VOLUME ISSUED.

For the original story see 3 SELL 75 (1978). For prices, catalog numbers, etc, please write to the Highsmith Company.

Dear Colleague:

We are enclosing registration materials and information about the Southeastern Conference of Law Teachers and Law Librarians to be held at the Hyatt Regency Lexington in Lexington, Kentucky on August 17, 18, and 19, 1978. We have planned some exciting professional and social events and look forward to seeing you and your family for our traditional end-of-summer get-together.

The Hyatt Regency Lexington is one of the finest hotels in Kentucky—located in the heart of the Bluegrass Country. The Hyatt is physically connected to the Lexington Convention Center—a full 11 acres of excitement and activity in the very center of Lexington. Opening directly off the hotel lobby is a huge multi-level shopping mall that is totally enclosed and air-conditioned so you can enjoy browsing among the dozens of fascinating shops and boutiques. The huge exhibit hall and 23,000-seat Rupp Arena also connect directly to the shopping mall. More details about the Hyatt and the Civic Center are contained in the hotel brochures that are being made available to the Dean of your law school.

As in the past, efforts are being made to make this a family experience. The Hyatt makes no charge for children staying in the same room as their parents; if you need an additional room for your children, it will be billed as a single room regardless of the number of children staying in the room. Babysitting services and other entertainment for the children will be provided as demand warrants.

Hotel registration forms are enclosed. Please fill those out and return immediately to the Hyatt Regency Lexington. We have reserved what we think are an adequate number of rooms based on prior attendance, but space may be at a premium. Also enclosed is an AALS/AALL Registration form. Please send in your registration fee ($60) with the form, in the enclosed envelope promptly. We also request that you indicate as provided the number of people in your party and the optional events in which you intend to participate. While we would appreciate payment for these at this time as well, you can arrange to make payment when you register at the Hyatt.

However, we still need an indication of your intent to participate in order to plan for these events.

Transportation:

Bluegrass Field services Allegheny, Eastern, Delta and Piedmont. Adequate taxi, airport limousine, and car rental services are available at the airport. Interstates 64 and 75 cross at Lexington and I-65 runs about 80 miles to the west and is connected to Lexington by the Bluegrass Parkway.

We look forward to seeing you in Lexington this August.

Cordially yours,

Paul C. Van Booven
William James
Local Arrangements Chairmen

At the June AALL Convention in Rochester, I attended the LEXIS users group meeting. It was extremely well attended, which was a good sign. Many people were so interested in the group that they volunteered (another good sign) to chair various sub-groups such as a directory of LEXIS users: Fred Smith of U.C.L.A. Law Library is chairing the Clearing House for major problems, complaints and systems improvement of LEXIS. Charles Dyer of Univ. of Missouri at Kansas City and Tom Steele of S.M.U. Law Library in Dallas, are leading the Vendor Relations Task Force, which will concern itself with pricing contracts, while Bob Grundy of the University of Houston Law Library is compiling a bibliography of research projects being done on the use and application of LEXIS. John Christensen of the University of Texas Law Library is still retaining over-all supervision of the entire LEXIS group.

One of my biggest gripes about LEXIS is its refusal to treat U.S. Supreme Court decisions any different than opinions of the lowest District Court. Mr. Heilesen of LEXIS acknowledged this fact at 3 SELL 62. A perfect example of my "beef" is LEXIS' handling of the BAKKE decision. When it was first announced in June, while we were in Rochester, people went to the computer to try to read the full text immediately. Alas it was not in the LEXIS data base on July 3rd, when the U.S. LAW WEEK version appeared. It was not in the LEXIS data base when a non-legal periodical, THE CHRONICLE OF HIGHER EDUCATION printed the full text. Said periodical was in our hands on July 5th. It was not in their data base on July 11th. After that date, I stopped searching on a daily base. The next time I looked, it was there, on July 21st. However, LEXIS BEAT Lawyers Edition 2d. The BAKKE decision appeared in their 57/2 issue, which we received on August 31st. It appeared in SUPREME COURT REPORTER (98/18) which we received on August 8th. I was hoping that LEXIS would mend their ways after reading my editorial. Alas, I was wrong.

So that you can fill out easily Ann Butler's Committee Assignment Request Form, for this issue only, I moved the President's Page to the back of the issue. The next issue of SELL will be published in January 1979.

INDEX TO LEGAL PERIODICALS

On page 12 of the August/September issue of JURIS DOCTOR, there was a story relating to the dispute between the AALL and the Wilson Company over the INDEX TO LEGAL PERIODICALS. All subscribers to ILP just received a letter from Wilson announcing that they are going to begin to index twenty more periodicals soon. It should be noted that the AALL Committee on the INDEX TO LEGAL PERIODICALS back in 1977 recommended to Wilson that these twenty titles be included. The Committee also recommended two more, LAW AND PSYCHOLOGY REVIEW and the ABA LEARNING AND THE LAW to be included. For some reason, Wilson omitted these two titles.

I hope that the Association will soon publish a statement, stating our position in this matter. You will note that in subsequent issues of ILP all references to the AALL will be eliminated. This is because the Wilson Co. refused to heed the AALL Committee's suggestions in the past few years regarding which new periodicals should be indexed and on other matters. Many face to face meetings took place between the Committee and Wilson. Because Wilson refused to listen to the AALL and the Committee, the Association withdrew our imprimatur recently.

Plans are being developed to perhaps produce another index, which will better index more periodicals than ILP. If you have any suggestions, or gripes about the ILP, please send them to Richard Bowler, Law Librarian at the University of Chicago.

GEORGIA LEGISLATIVE INFORMATION

by

Leah F. Chanin

The General Assembly of Georgia, which consists of two bodies -- the Senate and the House, has met annually since 1945, with frequently called extra sessions. The legislature convenes on the second Monday in January and remains in session for not more than forty days, which need not be consecutive.

The Acts of the General Assembly are published within a few weeks after the completion of the session and are available in slip paper form from the Secretary of State, Ben Fortson, and from the Harrison Company as the "Advance Codification Service." Both are issued over a six to eight week period.

Upon completion of issuance the current laws and resolutions issued by the Secretary of State contain two indexes, one for general laws and one for special and local laws. The pagination is the same as contained in the bound volumes of the session laws. The two bound volumes of session laws are issued by the Secretary of State about eight to nine months after the close of the session and contain parallel tables from act number to session law citation. They are for sale by him.

The Harrison Company's "Advance Codification Service" is issued by Georgia Code annotation citation, with accompanying session law citation. Many new acts are also printed in CCH's Advance Session Law Service as well as various loose leaf services such as PH's State and Local Taxes, Consumer and Commercial Credit and Corporations.

While there is no cumulative index for Georgia Laws (The official session laws), the Georgia Code Annotated Index contains citations to uncodified session laws. Acts of local application are usually indexed under the name of the municipality, county or subject.

Georgia has very few aids for interpreting the intent of the Legislature. The only tool currently available is the Journals of the General Assembly. These House and Senate Journals, published since 1799, contain only the voting record of House and Senate members, resolutions regulating internal operating procedures, committee assignment, reports of special or interim committees, addresses of the Governor to the Legislature, summaries of bills, passage recommendations of appropriate committees on each bill and an index for that session. Current House and Senate Journals and volumes for the last few years may be purchased from the State Law Library.
Other Agencies dealing with the Legislature are the:

A) CODE REVISION COMMISSION. This Commission was created in 1977 to compile information concerning publication of a new and "official" code for Georgia, the first since 1933.

B) LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL. This office provides legal and drafting services to the Legislature and publishes a "Summary of General Statutes Enacted" at the conclusion of each session. It may be ordered from the Counsel's Office.

C) During each session, the Clerk of the House and the Secretary of the Senate distribute, at their respective offices:

1) First reader -- a digest of bills introduced and referred to committee.

2) Status report of bills pending.

3) A pamphlet listing officers, members, addresses, and committees. This is available without cost from either the Clerk or the Secretary.

D) The Secretary of State issues a pamphlet, containing pictures, that lists all Assembly members, commissions, committees and rules of each body.

E) Georgia Official and Statistical Register. This volume is issued biannually by the Department of Archives. It contains extensive information about Georgia government, a calendar of the General Assembly, membership biographies and pictures.

F) Georgia has a toll free telephone number, 800 - 282 - 5800, which anyone may call and obtain information about a bill or a copy of a newly enrolled statute.

The AALL Committee on Exchange of Duplicates invites you to join its 1978-79 program to receive and/or contribute to six lists of law and law-related materials. Last year's membership totalled 189 libraries in 43 states, including Puerto Rico and over 9,700 exchange items were offered to participants.

Questionnaire responses by the membership once again indicated the legal periodical lists to be of greatest value to participants. However, this year, three other categories of materials will be listed as well: general compilations of federal court reports, West's regional reporters, and State reports of highest and intermediate level appellate courts (Official).

The cost for a subscription is $15.00, payable to AALL Exchange of Duplicates Committee. You need NOT be a member of AALL to join. Further information is available from:

Mike Beaird, Law Librarian and Assistant Professor of Law at the University of Mississippi, contributed the following chart (page 14) showing comparative statistics for various Law Libraries in the South Eastern region. He produced it for internal use, therefore, some schools were not included. This data is based upon Al Lewis' forthcoming article in Law Library Journal. Mike received permission from Lorraine Kulpa, Editor-In-Chief of LLJ, to print these figures in SELL. We believe that his figures will prove interesting to your budgetary authorities. They will save you time in producing similar charts.

The annual business meeting of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries was held at the convention center in Lexington, Kentucky, on August 18, 1978. President Caroline C. Heriot called the meeting to order at 5:15 p.m. After thanking William James for arranging the annual meeting, she introduced Myron Jacobstein, President of A.A.L.L. President Jacobstein reported that the Association's financial condition was grave and that a committee was studying the situation. One economy already approved was the reduction in the number of pages in the Law Library Journal. Now that the membership of the Association is so large, it is impossible to assign all members to a committee; committees must be small in order to be most effective. He reported that the task force on networking had published its report and that a committee was now considering its implementation. He urged law library representation in the White House Conference on Libraries and Information Services and in the state preconferences. He concluded by reminding the members of the meeting in San Francisco next year.

The reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with since they had been published in the Chapter newsletter. As there was no old business, the President called for new business. She reported that the scholarship fund provided by the last institute was depleted. Lamar Woodard, the Secretary-Treasurer, announced that there would be funds in the treasury which could be used for scholarships, the exact amount not then determinable since all bills had not been received. William James pointed out that no provision had been made for the Chapter to share in the profits or losses of the current meeting with the Southeastern Conference of the Association of American Law Schools. Kathleen Price recommended that the Chapter establish a policy concerning the time and place of institutes. In the discussion which followed Michael Richmond favored raising dues in order to provide for scholarship funds and continuing the institutes for the same reason. He indicated that he was in favor of meeting with the law teachers. Mary Oliver pointed out that holding the institute at the time and place of the joint meeting saved travel funds, and that it was important for law school librarians to attend professional meetings with other faculty. Anne Butler stated that law firm librarians have difficulty justifying the attendance at law teachers' meetings.

Mary Oliver moved that the Southeastern Chapter continue to hold its annual meeting at the same time and place as the Southeastern Conference of A.A.L.S.; that the Chapter institute be held immediately before or after that meeting; and that financial arrangements for the institute be separate from those of the annual meeting. Kathleen Price seconded the motion. In the discussion which followed, William Younger questioned the holding of the institute so soon after the annual A.A.L.L. meeting. Robin Mills pointed out that one of the purposes of the Chapter was to provide for participation on the part of librarians who do not attend the national meetings. The advantage of having a joint banquet and reception with the law teachers and the fact that separate registration fees would simplify the financial arrangements, was pointed out by Kathleen Price. At the conclusion of the discussion the members present voted to adopt the motion.
The President then brought to the attention of the membership the need for a Chapter archive. Kathleen Price moved that Lamar Woodard be appointed Chapter Archivist. The motion was seconded by Mary Oliver. There was no discussion, and the motion carried. Whereupon the President appointed Lamar Woodard the Chapter Archivist, noting that it was an administrative appointment. Lamar Woodard agreed to accept the appointment.

Lamar Woodard then moved that the Chapter offer three, $200 scholarships to attend the next A.A.L.L. annual meeting. The motion was seconded by Michael Richmond and carried without opposition.

The President announced that the Chapter meeting next year will be in Mississippi, and that she was extending an invitation to meet in Williamsburg in 1981.

Mary Oliver, a member of the A.A.L.L. committee monitoring the progress of the White House Conference on Libraries and Information Services pre-conferences, asked that she be advised of local developments of interest to her committee.

As there was no further business, the new Chapter officers were introduced: Anne Butler, President; Robin Mills, Vice President-President Elect; and Frances Hall, Secretary-Treasurer. President Heriot then turned the gavel over to the new president. A vote of thanks was extended to Caroline Heriot and to Lamar Woodard for their leadership and service to the Chapter. President Butler requested the members interested in serving on committees to notify her. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 6:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Frances H. Hall
Secretary-Treasurer

Many thanks from the Southeastern Chapter to Caroline Heriot for her time and efforts in serving as Chapter President. Congratulations on a job well done! Also our thanks go to Bill James and his committee for presenting an interesting and informative program at the Southeastern Chapter meeting. Everyone certainly enjoyed the Kentucky hospitality as well. Next year the Chapter meeting will be held in Biloxi, Mississippi. Mark your calendars to attend.

The Bureau of National Affairs has offered to produce a directory of the Southeastern membership. This information will be taken from the Chapter records which we are currently trying to update. If you or anyone you know is not receiving Chapter correspondence, etc., please contact Frances Hall, Secretary-Treasurer, to verify your membership.

Also - now is the time for all interested members to come to the aid of their Chapter. It's Committee time! I am looking for anyone interested in working on a Committee for a two year term. Each chairperson will be asked to submit an annual report of the Committee's work to be published in the Southeastern Law Librarian. Therefore, all of you with ideas and the desire to contribute to and improve Chapter communications, please fill out the form provided and mail to me by November 3rd. Thanks very much.
