Prof. Morris Cohen just wrote: "Unless future editions increase in complexity or deteriorate in clarity and scope, the influence of the BLUEBOOK (as it is popularly known) should grow, and it should become as close to an effective standard as seems possible." 32 Vanderbilt L. Rev. 1511 at 1512 (1979)

To paraphrase the old chestnut, the Harvard Citator (Uniform System of Citations, 12th edition, 4th printing) is too important a legal research tool to be left to the editors of the Harvard Law Review to compile and edit.

Do you know that the Fourth Printing contains many substantial changes from the Third? Thus, in fact superseding it. For example, they have made many changes in how to cite State materials, i.e., "Hawaii" is now spelled out. Yes, I realize that they say on the front inside cover that as need the Editors will make changes. They should have sent out flyers announcing the fact of a new printing and detailing the changes made. Alas, they did not. As I wrote this, I saw an announcement for the Fifth Printing. I am trying to discover if there will be significant changes in it. Reference to the 12th edition alone is not adequate. You must refer also to the printing. It is almost impossible to convince first year students that the 12th edition is a vast improvement over the 11th. Still, I discover that the more I use it, the more nuances I find in it.

To make the Harvard Citator a more responsible-to-our-needs legal research tool, several things are needed: 1/ the setting up of an A.A.L.L. Committee on the Harvard Citator to advise the editors. 2/ Its physical size should be increased from its present small size (6x4½') to the size of the Harvard Law Review (10x6½'). This would give the Editors more room to clearly state the role; to give examples, to give the exceptions and to print the rationales for the rule, much like the Restatement does. 3/ Eliminate the section (pages 157bottom to 170) on foreign, non-common law countries' materials. Publish it as a separate, like they did for years for state codes.

An A.A.L.L. Committee would give continuity and a focal point to send in criticisms, suggestions. The law review editors change yearly and probably are too busy with the law review and their school work to spend much time on the citator.

I have several complaints about the citator: it does not recognize the existence of Lawyers Coop's U.S.C.S., or Lawyers Edition 2d. The Harvard Citator lists three versions of the Ohio Code (page 131). Certainly, they can list three versions of the United States Code. Nor does the Citator acknowledge the existence of C.C.H.'s U.S. Supreme Court Bulletin. Prof. Cohen refers to it in his Nutshell book (page 29.) What to do about citing to microformat material?

Something should be done by us to improve the Harvard Citator.
It is hard to believe another year has passed -- much less a decade! The coming year promises some exciting events for the Chapter.

Our first membership directory for Southeastern Chapter members will be coming out. However, its preparation by Connie Pine and her committee requires cooperation of all members, so I encourage you to fill out the attached form if you have not already done so or need to update your previous information.

Also our program committee for the Gatlinburg meeting in August is seeking suggestions for topics of interest to you. Robin Mills (University of South Carolina) chairs this committee and her members are Larry Wenger (University of Virginia) and Don Ziegenfuss (Carlton, Fields, Tampa, Florida). Please let them hear from you soon, as planning is getting underway.

Finally there will be some changes in the Chapter by-laws coming up for vote at the St. Louis meeting. Please see elsewhere in this newsletter for a copy of those changes as well as a discussion of the "pros" and "cons".

Looking forward to a successful new year.

Anne H. Butler

We are reprinting the S.E.L.L. Membership Questionnaire, because Connie Pine has indicated that very few people sent back a completed copy of it. This is your last call to be listed in our upcoming membership directory. Please fill out the form today and mail it back. Thanks.

RATIONALE

The proposed by-laws changes listed in this issue of SELL would not mandate a change from the chapter's present annual meeting procedures. They would merely provide the flexibility for the chapter to meet whenever and wherever it chooses. The issue is not really whether or not we should meet jointly with the Southeastern Conference of the Association of American Law Schools. Rather it is whether or not we should have the choice to meet with them or without them.

Undoubtedly some feel so strongly about meeting with the law teachers that they will not vote for the proposed changes. But consider the possibilities if the changes are adopted. The chapter could choose to meet at a more convenient time of year than six weeks after the annual AALL meeting. We could devote our efforts to planning a full program on law library issues rather than one that tries to appeal equally to law librarians and law teachers. We could take advantage of the opportunity to meet jointly with other law library chapters, to share programs, speakers and expenses. We could also choose to meet with the law teachers if it seems desirable to the officers and program planners. The point is that we should have the flexibility of choice from year to year, rather than being locked into a pattern which severely limits program planners, participants and attendees of the meeting.

We all have too many meetings to attend, too many associations to join, too many issues to solve in too short a time. Joint efforts can frequently alleviate these problems; they can also too often shortchange the participant. Our chapter is now large enough to support its own meetings without dependence on the law teachers or any other group. It is also diverse enough to warrant consideration of all types of libraries and librarians when planning a meeting.

If the adoption of the proposed changes necessitates difficult decisions for the officers and members, it can only make us stronger as an organization. I urge you to vote in favor of the proposed by-law changes so that in the future the members of this chapter will reap the benefits of well-planned, timely and informative meetings.

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING
August 13, 1979

The annual meeting of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries was held at the Broadwater Beach Hotel, Biloxi, Mississippi, on August 13, 1979. President Anne H. Butler opened the meeting at 9:05 a.m. by introducing Connie E. Bolden, President of AALL. After expressing pleasure at being present, President Bolden reported the following activities of the Association:

1. AALL has been granted delegate status for the White House Conference on Library and Information Services, and a position paper is being prepared to send to each delegate.
2. A continuing education program along the lines of CLENE is in the planning stage.
3. A committee is studying the need and funding for an executive director.
4. New SIS's were approved by the Executive Board.
5. Since the AALL Headquarters lease expires in 1981, and rent at that location is expected to increase considerably, space in the new American Library Association building is being considered for the Headquarters' offices.
6. The contract between AALL and the Information Access Corporation will be published in the AALL Newsletter. A list of titles to be indexed is available at AALL Headquarters.

President Bolden also discussed the sites of future AALL annual conferences.

A business meeting followed. President Butler called on the Secretary-Treasurer, Frances H. Hall, to read the Minutes of the business meeting in San Francisco on July 5, 1979. The Minutes were read and approved. She reported a balance in the treasury of $1,705.52 and that 253 members had paid dues for the year. The President then called on the Committees for reports. Committees reported as follows:

Membership Committee: In the absence of the chairperson, Marguerite Haggerty (member) reported that a brochure was being considered which would include a history of the Chapter.

Minority Librarians Committee: Steve Huang, Chairperson, reported that information on Library School scholarships for minorities had been sought.

Private Law Libraries Committee: Anne Slaughter, Chairperson, requested the firm librarians present to meet with her to discuss committee activities.

State, County and Court Committee: Clayne Calhoun, Chairperson, reported that a survey to identify problems of court libraries and a workshop on service to prisoners was being considered.

Newsletter Committee: In the absence of the Chairperson, Anne Fessenden (member) reported that more news of members and libraries was needed and that the response from the notice in the Newsletter was not large.

Placement Committee: Leigh Morris, Chairperson, was not present but sent a message that there were several job openings in the Southeast.
Local Arrangements Committee: Michael Beaird, Chairperson, thanked his assistants and the following companies which had sponsored events or made contributions: Bureau of National Affairs, Dennis & Co., EBSCO Subscription Services, Lawyers Co-operative Publishing Co., Oceana Publications, Fred B. Rothman Co., William W. Gaunt & Sons, Congressional Information Service, Information Handling Services, and F. W. Faxon Co. He estimated that there would be funds left over from the expenses of the meeting.

Program Committee: Robin Mills, Chairperson, thanked the members of the committee, Lance Dickson and Anne Slaughter, for their assistance.

Constitution/Bylaws Committee: The members of the committee being absent, Anne Slaughter presented their proposed changes to the Bylaws as follows:

1. Amend Article I, Section 2b. 1. & 2. by changing the annual dues for individual membership, association membership, and institutional membership from $5.00 to $10.00 a year and for the maximum institutional membership from $50.00 to $100.00.

2. Amend Article II, Section 1 by striking out "Meetings shall be held generally coinciding with the meetings of the South­ eastern Regional Conference of Law Teachers."

3. Amend Article IV, Section 1 by correcting a typographical error.

4. Amend Article V by requiring the Secretary-Treasurer to report certain Chapter information to the executive secretary of AALL instead of to the AALL Committee on Chapters.

In the discussion which followed the following points were brought out: the advantages of sharing a program with the law teachers; the difficulties of transportation to Gatlinburg, Tennessee, the site decided on at the last annual meeting for the 1980 meeting; the advantages of a separate program; the advantage of meeting at a time not so close to that of the AALL annual meeting; the absence of many law school librarians from the meeting; and the lack of interest on the part of firm librarians in meeting with law teachers.

The President announced that the proposed changes to the Bylaws would be mailed on a ballot to the membership.

Scholarship Committee: Carol West, Chairperson, recommended that three $200.00 scholarships be offered by the Chapter as in the previous year. This recommendation was approved by the members present.

President Butler thanked the Local Arrangements Committee, the Program Committee, the sponsors of social events, and the companies which made contributions. This was followed by a round of applause. As there was no further business, the meeting adjourned at 10:30 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Frances H. Hall
Secretary-Treasurer

LUCILE ELLIOTT SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

The Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries, at a meeting held in Chapel Hill, October 30, 1964, established a scholarship fund in honor of Miss Lucile Elliott, to be given at such times and in such amounts as funds are available. Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) is allocated for the year 1980; the money will be divided into three scholarships of $200.00 each.

Miss Lucile Elliott, one of our most honored and beloved members, retired as law librarian at the University of North Carolina in 1955 after a distinguished career of service. The American Association of Law Libraries conferred upon her their highest honor when they elected her as their national president in 1953. Upon her retirement she was made a life member. It was due in large part to her efforts that the Southeastern Chapter was organized. Appropriately, approval of the charter came during the 1954 meeting over which she presided. Her interest in encouraging young librarians to advance in the profession made it most appropriate that a fund was established from which scholarships are given by the chapter in honor of her memory.

Any law librarian living in the Southeastern area may apply for a scholarship. The scholarship may be used for any purpose reasonably designed to improve professional knowledge and advance a career in law librarianship. Although in recent years most scholarships have been awarded to attend the AALL Annual Meeting and/or Institute, applicants seeking support for other endeavors within the scope of the scholarship will be accepted. Preference will be given to applicants requesting funds for attendance at institutes or professional meetings. Preference will be given also to persons who have not received a Southeastern grant during the previous five (5) years.

An application form may be found in this issue of the Southeastern Law Librarian. Additional copies may be photocopied or requested from the committee chairman. All applications must be received by the committee chairman by April 1, 1980.

This year's committee is composed of: Chairman - Carol West (Mississippi College School of Law Library), Edwin Schroeder (Florida State University College of Law Library), Joan Cannon (Florida Supreme Court Library) and, Alice Murphy (Dade County Law Library).
CONSUMER WATCH

You should check your CURRENT LAW INDEX invoice. Have they charged you postage and handling? They charged me $36.00 per year, despite the fact that their promotional literature made no mention of said charges. I wrote them challenging the charge. Although they admitted it was their mistake (a unilateral one) they refused to correct the invoice. I have filed a formal grievance with the A.A.L.L. Committee on Relations with Publishers and Dealers. Check your CURRENT LAW INDEX invoice.
