Dear Sally,

Thanks for the revised Lucile Elliot timeline, guidelines and scoresheets. Thank you for all your efforts to accomplish these revisions. As you are aware, Scholarship Committee chairs have wrestled with various revisions for some years now. One of the roadblocks in the past was that the Board was of the opinion that the entire membership needed to vote on these changes. Thank goodness we didn't worry about that on this occasion. It's just not necessary, in my opinion, for these sorts of changes.

And, of course, should the Committee or membership feel as though these provisions are not working out in the future, they can be changed again.

Thanks again for all the good work. It was good to see you at VALL.

Very truly yours,

Donna Bausch
