Dear Pearl:

Thank you for the announcement about the Lucile Elliott Scholarship. I presume you intended it for a Current Comment and it has been used for that purpose.

I never knew Lucile, for she retired about the time that I started attending conventions. However, I've heard her name so much from Marian that I know she has made a significant contribution to the Association. The scholarship is a splendid way to perpetuate her work and to show the chapter's appreciation.

The announcement will appear in the May issue, which may not be out until June. They seem somewhat delayed this year so I doubt if the comment will result in any applicants.

However, I'm pleased to have the announcement for a Comment and am always happy to have people keep the column in mind.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Viola A. Bird, Editor
Current Comments, L.L.J.
