THE KING LIBRARY PRESS

The King Library Press will mark its thirty-fifth anniversary in 1991. Its imprints are produced by hand on antique printing presses used both to demonstrate and preserve the craft and tradition of historical typography and to explore the arts of the book. It was founded in 1956 by Carolyn Reading Hammer. The following publications are currently available.

Books

John Clubbe. Byron's Natural Man. An essay about Daniel Boone as he appears in Lord Byron's poem Don Juan. Fifty dollars.

Algernon Charles Swinburne. On the Cliffs. Swinburne's poem printed on an uncut sheet of Japanese paper, illustrated by John Tuska and housed in a box with a paper sculpture by John Tuska. Two hundred dollars.

Broadsides

Guy Davenport. "37 Avenue Samson." Autographed by the poet. Twenty-five dollars.

William Faulkner. "Le Prix Nobel." The text of the writer's acceptance speech for the Nobel Prize. Five dollars.

Skip Taylor. "Love Poem." A composition in type; missing letters spell out "I Love You." Five dollars.

Autographed Keepsakes

Donald Hall. "O Cheese." Ten dollars.

Garry Wills. A passage from Inventing America. Ten dollars.

Bobbie Ann Mason. A passage from Spence + Lila. Ten dollars.

Wendell Berry. "Under the Mid-Autumn Moon," from Sayings and Doings. Fifteen dollars.

Orders may be directed to the King Library Press, Department of Special Collections and Archives, University of Kentucky Libraries, Lexington, Kentucky 40506-0039. Telephone (606) 257-8611.

Note to Contributors

Computer generated manuscripts may be submitted to The Kentucky Review in forms that will assist in both editing and in type composition should the works be selected for publication. Articles may be offered on 3.5 inch diskettes formatted for the Apple MacIntosh. The Kentucky Review is prepared using Microsoft Word for the Macintosh, but can translate files from other major programs; however, where Microsoft Word is not used, inclusion of an ASCII file would be welcomed. Always include a paper copy of your article should the datafiles prove unusable. Essays may also be submitted via BITNET. The address is kli111 ukcc.uky.edu. Manuscripts that are not computer produced should be typed in a standard typeface, such as Courier, Elite or Pica, to facilitate electronic scanning.
