Dear Susan:

It is with embarrassment that I admit I misplaced your request and am thus so far behind schedule in answering you.

(1) I prefer a "substantial" award to 2 or more people—let us say $250.00 each—rather than $100—to 4 or more people.

(2) As a radical possibility could we in the future select alternate recipients and have a provision that a recipient of an A.A.L.L. scholarship in excess of $100.00 would agree to waive the S.E. one and thus the alternate could receive it.

(3) Don’t think we should notify A.A.L.L. of our winners. Am not adamant about this but our $100.00 award may prevent someone from receiving a larger grant.

Hope this is of some benefit.

Kindest personal regards,

Leah F. Chanin
