Miss Jeanne Tillman
Wake Forest College Law Library
Wake Forest, N. C.

Dear Miss Tillman:

Will you please serve as Chairman of the Nominating Committee for Southeastern Chapter of A. A. L. L.? I have asked Miss Margaret Pradegast to serve as the other member of the Committee. The officers to be nominated are Secretary-Treasurer for 1956-57 and Vice-President and President-Elect for 1956-57. The person elected Vice-President and President-Elect is to serve as President for 1957-58.

As I understand the procedure, when the agenda for our annual meeting in Lexington in August is sent to the membership, we will include a request that nominations for the two offices be sent to the Nominating Committee. The Committee will then prepare a slate and election will be by mail ballot. The persons elected will take office at the Lexington meeting.

I thought it better to appoint the Committee now as you may want to do some planning together at A. A. L. L. in Philadelphia.

I know that you are familiar with the membership and that you will be a great help in selecting the kind of officers the organization needs.

Please let me hear from you.

Sincerely,

Corinne Bass, President
Southeastern Chapter, A. A. L. L.
