Sixth Annual Showcase of Undergraduate Scholars

On Wednesday, April 27th, 2011, the Office of Undergraduate Research and the Society for the Promotion of Undergraduate Research (SPUR) presented the Sixth Annual Showcase of Undergraduate Scholars. SPUR, the University of Kentucky's undergraduate research student organization planned most of the event including the opening act, the Discovery Seminar Program's Sign Language class.

The event included 150 poster and 10 oral presentations. Students represented 10 different colleges from across campus.

Food and beverages were provided and served by Dr. Sandra Bastin's Nutrition and Food Science Seniors.

SPUR seeks to introduce students to scholarly inquiry by engaging them in the research process and facilitating the discovery of new knowledge through mentorship and collaboration.
