Dear Mr. Runge,

The Oregon Law Review (OLR) has no objections to the posting of the articles listed below in your July 6 email provided the postings identify the author, the Oregon Law Review, the volume, and number of the article's first page as published in the OLR, and the year of the article's publication in the OLR. Please note that Mary Davis' article begins on page 157 in OLR volume 77 not page 101 as indicated.

All concerns and questions regarding copyright ownership should be directed to the authors.

Thank you for contacting us.

Dear Editor,

Three of our faculty members have published articles in your law review. I am writing to request your permission to post these works in the University of Kentucky, College of Law™s electronic repository for faculty publications (http://uknowledge.uky.edu/law_facpub/). May we include these works? The specific titles are listed below.

Richard Ausness, Tort Liability for Asbestos Removal Costs, 73 Or. L. Rev. 505 (1994).

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Respectfully,

Franklin Runge
