Dear Kate:

I am so very glad that you have agreed to serve as Vice-President and President-Elect of Southeastern Chapter, A. A. L. L. for 1957-58.

Since Minnette Massey, the current Chapter Secretary, is very busy with work at N. Y. U., the ballots were returned to me. The ballots have been opened. You were elected President and Ruth Corry Secretary-Treasurer. Both elections were unanimous.

The new officers are to take office at the last session of our annual meeting in Atlanta. At the same time, Dorothy Salmon will take over as President for 1957-58.

Thank you again for your willingness to serve. These are important times for the Chapter and I know that Chapter affairs will go forward under your capable administration.

Sincerely,

Corinne Bass, President
Southeastern Chapter, A. A. L. L.
