Dear Chapter President:

The Committee on Publicity of the American Association of Law Libraries is attempting to learn what chapters publish bulletins. I will appreciate it if you will let me know by writing on the reverse side of this letter whether or not your chapter publishes a bulletin. Please let me know even if your chapter does not publish a bulletin.

If your chapter does publish a bulletin, please send me three copies. We wish to work up a display of these bulletins for the Colorado Springs meeting next June.

We will also appreciate it if you will add the name of Francis B. Waters, Court of Appeals Library, Eagle Street, Albany 7, New York to your mailing list so that he will receive copies of your bulletin. Frank, as you know, compiles Membership News for the Law Library Journal. By receiving copies of your bulletin, Frank may be able to give more attention to the activities of your chapter.

If your chapter has published, or will publish, a list of members, please see that a copy is sent to the A.A.L.L. membership chairman, Mrs. Vera Carlsson, University of Minnesota Law Library, Minneapolis 14, Minnesota.

Your cooperation in complying with the above request is deeply appreciated. If there is anything that the Committee on Publicity can do for your chapter, please do not hesitate to let us know.

Sincerely yours,

Mortimer Schwartz
