Dear Joy:

Thank you for agreeing to serve on the 1988/89 SEAALL Publicity and Public Relations Committee. I look forward to working with you to promote the activities of the Chapter.

Please think about the types of public relations activities which you think are necessary, the various items which the Committee should forward for inclusion in the AALL Newsletter, and other ideas which you might have for the Committee. We might consider putting together a short "public relations package" for law librarians giving them ideas on publicizing their activities, services, etc. To obtain some information from the general membership of the Chapter, I will be forwarding a short notice to Michael Petit, editor of the SOUTHEASTERN LAW LIBRARIAN.

Please let me know your ideas. Thank you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Timothy L. Coggins".

1988/89 Publicity & Public
Relations Committee
