Dear Tim and Mary,

I'm following through on the conversation I had last week with Mary regarding the possibility of SEAALL and VALL jointly proposing the program from the Tuscaloosa meeting, "Dialogue With a Library School", as a program for the AALL Education/Program Committee to consider for the 1992 AALL Annual Meeting.

Donna and I believe that this topic fits right in with the announced theme for 1992 of "Pass the Word" and with the new focus on recruitment. We have both kept our files, correspondence and scripts which will make duplicating the concept much easier. While we worked on this wearing our SEAALL "hats", we think having dual chapter sponsorship would strengthen the chance that this program would be accepted. VALL has already given us the go-ahead. We hope that SEAALL will agree that this is a good idea.

Enclosed you will find a draft of the program proposal on the form required by this year's education committee for your review. If the idea of joint sponsorship meets with your approval, Donna and I would be happy to work with someone from this year's SEAALL program committee or to just handle it ourselves in our dual chapter mode.

We look forward to talking with you more about this in New Orleans. Please don't hesitate to call either of us if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Donna Bausch and Jean Holcomb
PROGRAM PROPOSAL
1992 AALL Annual Meeting
San Francisco, California

Proposed title (or subject area): Dialogue With a Library School: The Future of Library Education

Person and/or AALL component making proposal: Virginia Association of Law Libraries and Southeastern Chapter of the American Assoc. of Law Libraries

Contact person and address: Jean Holcomb, Norfolk Law Library. Dominion Tower, 999 Waterside Drive, Norfolk VA 23510

Proposed Program Coordinator (if known at time of proposal): Jean Holcomb, Donna Bausch (and member of SEAALL Program Ctte?)

Length of program (e.g. 1 1/2 hours): 1 1/2 hours

Type of program (e.g. panel, roundtable, role-playing, etc.): Interactive panel whose members address questions to one another

Target Audience (type and level of knowledge/experience): All law librarians

Intended learning outcomes for participants: This panel discussion is intended to rekindle law librarians' interest in the future of library education and inspire their involvement as active alumni, adjunct faculty, student advisers; as partners in the recruitment process; and as concerned components of the library profession.

Description of program: A loosely structured interactive panel discussion format, begun with an introductory overview and providing significant opportunity for audience participation and concluding with a statement from the moderator. Issues to be addressed include: recruitment, curriculum, law librarianship--library education relations, alumni involvement, etc. This program will be modeled upon a successful and thought-provoking program from the 1991 SEAALL Annual Meeting.
Speakers: Please provide a realistic list of speakers, but do not make a commitment to any speaker until you are notified that your program has been accepted for 1992. Please Note: Normally AALL members pay their own expenses and do not receive any honoraria. Briefly list types of speakers to be recruited. Include subject expertise and affiliation.
