Dear Ms. Holcomb:

Thanks very much for volunteering to work on the new SEALL Publications Committee, which I have been asked to chair.

As you know, this is a brand new committee, and it will take us some time to get organized. I would, however, like us to get to work on some specific projects as soon as possible.

It would be very helpful to me if you could let me know:

- (1) What types of projects you think this Committee might undertake (enclosed are some suggestions from our President, Carol Billings);
- (2) What you would be most interested in working on;
- (3) What kind of experience or special interest you have had in writing, editing or publishing;

It might make sense for us to establish, at any early date, a discrete list of areas we will initially focus on, and to form subcommittees to get to work in those areas. The information you send me, as requested above, will greatly help me to begin this type of organization of effort.

May I hear from you by November 7, at the latest?

Thanks for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
