Dear Ed:

I hope you won't be horrified to see the expenses of our two book conservation panelists. The program committee promised them each an honorarium of $100 plus reimbursement of their expenses back before they agreed to participate in the program. Col. Gilbert's grand total is $187.11, and Dr. DePew's is $232.25.

If there is any question about the matter, you might want to check with Kay or Don. Thanks for taking care of this.

I really enjoyed seeing you again--and meeting Bridget. It was a really worthwhile meeting. Thanks for your part in that.
