Mississippi and Alabama never acknowledged the checks, which surprised me. They probably can go on into the archives at this point.

Jack,

You probably are correct about the bank procedure. I went in person to sign a signature card way back in 1999, I believe.

BTW, I never commented on the letters thanking us for our donations to the FL and LA libraries. I have to say the FL library letters were more gracious than the LA letter, which seemed perfunctory. But at least LA wrote. Didn't we donate to MS as well?

The letters are in my files. Do you think I should just give them to John Barden for the archives instead?

Thanks!
Sally
