Dear Sarah,

At the suggestion of the Executive Committee of the SE Chapter of the A.A.L.L., the Program Committee has scheduled for the August 24 morning session of the combined SE Law Teachers and SE Chapter of the A.A.L.L. meeting a round-table discussion of practice books, digests, etc., of the Southeastern states as represented by the A.L.L.S. and SE Chapter of the A.A.L.L.

The panel will discuss these materials and encourage questions from the floor. However, to aid in this discussion and in order to compile a report that would be of inestimable value to our entire area and adjacent jurisdictions alike, we would appreciate it and be very grateful if you could supply the committee with a rundown of your state's practice, digest and form-book materials; their importance, value, and currency. This report would be distributed at the meeting and to all those librarians wishing a copy, all the Southeastern law libraries will receive a copy.

Would you communicate your reply to John Folger, who shall represent the committee at Philadelphia or to me at your earliest convenience. Unfortunately, I shall not be able to renew acquaintances by attending the Philadelphia meeting due to a teaching commitment. Thanking you for your kind consideration to our request, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sarah,

Sorry can't make the convention. And as things look, neither the A.L.L.S. meeting what a summer this will be!
