Article I. Membership

Section 1. Eligibility. Any person or institution who is a member of the American Association of Law Libraries and who resides in the Southeastern region is eligible for membership.

Persons or institutions who are not members of the American Association of Law Libraries who are engaged or interested in law library work and who wish to take part in regional activities may become members of the chapter upon application to its president and approval by a two-thirds vote of the members. This type of membership is subject to the limitations imposed by the By-laws of the American Association of Law Libraries (Art. V (d)).

Section 2. Finances. Income of the Chapter shall be derived from the following sources:

b. Dues paid by members of the Southeastern Chapter in the amount to be determined by the Chapter.

c. Assessments or other means as may be deemed necessary and after approval by the Chapter.

Article II. Meetings.

Section 1. Meetings shall be held generally coinciding with the meetings of the Southeastern Regional Conference of Law Teachers.

Section 2. Special meetings may be held at such time and place as the Executive Committee of the Chapter directs.

Article III. Elections.

The officers shall be elected annually by mail ballot. The candidates receiving the largest number of votes shall be declared elected. The membership is to be notified by the secretary-treasurer of the outcome of the election by mail or at the annual meeting.

Article IV. Ballot upon amendments to the Constitution.

Proposed amendments to the Constitution shall be submitted by the secretary-treasurer to all members through the mail, allowing at least thirty days between mailing of the ballots and the closing of balloting.

Article V. Transaction of business.

Section 1. A majority of members attending a meeting shall constitute a quorum.

Section 2. Due notice must be given to all members of the agenda to be discussed at the business meetings so that those members unable to attend may be apprised of the issues and present their views in writing. Such written statements shall be read at the meeting. When the executive committee is in doubt that the vote at the meeting represents the opinion of the majority of the members, a mail ballot shall be directed.
