Dear Mary:

Enclosed I am sending a copy of this year's Lucille Elliott scholarship announcement and application form. As you can see, I incorporated your suggestion on the financial question but I am a little unhappy with the phraseology of the parenthetic clause. Perhaps you can help me redraft it for next year's use. I also rewrote the announcement to include the past tense concerning Miss Elliott. I am a little bit uneasy about this because I could find no evidence of Miss Elliott's death in the Law Library Journal and Chapel Hillians are known for their longevity, but Pearl has assured me that she has been dead for years. Thus we mailed 250 copies of the announcements and forms to Nancy Kitchen today for general distribution to all members of our Chapter. Pearl will instruct her whether she wants to include it with her Newsletter or with Peyton Neal's announcement on the Atlanta Class K workshop. I only asked that whichever way it will be done, it should be done reasonably soon as there isn't much time left before April 1. I also mailed a copy to Mary Oliver and asked her to mention it in her national newsletter.

The only other item of news is that we may have a new dean, Mr. Hardy from Louisiana. His appointment should go to our Board of Trustees in the middle of February.

Best regards,

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Susan D. Csaky
