Dear Mary:

Attached I am sending you a copy of this year's Lucile Elliott scholarship announcement and application form ahead of the general distribution to the SEAALL membership so that you could mention it in one of your next Newsletters and give a little national publicity to it. It seems that some years the scholarship committee is flooded with applications, others there are practically none. I don't know which way it will go this year. Seattle is unfortunately too far for $100.00 to do much good.

How are things in Chapel Hill? We have a new dean at last, Prof. Hardy from Louisiana, one of the ex-members of your faculty. Any advice you can give us on him?

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Susan D. Csaky
Assistant Law Librarian

LUCILE ELLIOTT SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

The Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries, at a meeting held in Chapel Hill, October 30, 1964, established a scholarship in honor of Miss Lucile Elliott, to be given at such times and in such amounts as funds are available. One hundred dollars ($100.00) is allocated for the year 1973.

Persons eligible are those living in the Southeastern area who are striving to improve their professional knowledge and advance their careers in law librarianship. The scholarship may be used for any purpose reasonably designed to carry out this objective, such as attending institutes or national meetings, or for expenses while attending school. It is not limited to members of the Chapter.

Miss Lucile Elliott was one of our most honored and beloved members. She retired as law librarian at the University of North Carolina in 1955 after a distinguished career of service. The American Association of Law Libraries conferred upon her their highest honor when they elected her their national president in 1953. Upon her retirement she was made a life member. It was due in large part to her efforts that the Southeastern Chapter was organized and approval of its charter appropriately came during the meeting over which she presided as president in 1954. Her interest in encouraging young people to advance in the profession made it most appropriate that this scholarship was established and is continued to be given in honor of her memory by the chapter.

Members of the Association are urged to contact persons who might be interested and to encourage them to apply.

A form is enclosed which may be used. Additional application forms are available from the Committee Chairman. All applications for 1973 should be received by April 1, 1973.

The scholarship committee consists of Mrs. Mary P. Green, Vanderbilt University, Law Library, and Mrs. Vivian L. Wilson, Wake Forest University, Law Library, and
