Mrs. Pearl W. Von Allmen, President
Southeastern Chapter of A.A.L.L.
University of Louisville
Law Library
Louisville, Kentucky 40208

Dear Pearl:

After some serious thoughts on the matter, the Scholarship Committee decided to award this year's Lucile Elliott scholarship to:

Mrs. Gloria M. Frederick
University of North Carolina
Law Library
Chapel Hill, North Carolina 27514

Mrs. Frederick has been on Mary Oliver's staff for 3 years and has been striving to improve her professional knowledge by taking Law School courses apparently with good results. She hopes to use the scholarship to defray tuition and book expenses of her part-time Library science courses. The Scholarship Committee feels that Mrs. Frederick is a worthy recipient of the scholarship money.

According to correspondence in the files of the Committee, it has been past practice for the President to notify the recipient of the award and for the Secretary to send her the check. Consequently, I am writing you and Nancy Kitchen to let you both know of our choice but I am asking Nancy to hold the check until she hears from you. Please let me know if you would rather have me write to Mrs. Frederick.

Hope to see you soon. Best regards,

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs.} Susan D. Csaky, Chairman
