Southeastern Law Librarian

Newsletter of the Southeastern Chapter of A.A.L.L.

Volume 29 Number 4

Fall, 2004

RAMBLINGS BY YOUR PRESIDENT

by Michael J. Petit

Chapter business is moving along as we approach the end of 2004. We hope to have the website up for the annual meeting in Montgomery by the end of the month. Georgia Chadwick is working on a chapter VIP for the San Antonio AALL meeting. As soon as this is finalized, it will be added to the website and announced in the next newsletter.

Speaking of the Montgomery meeting, the AALL Board Visiting Member will be Ann Fessenden. Ann is the Circuit Librarian for the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals Library in St. Louis, Missouri. Ann is the current Board Liaison to the Council of Chapter Presidents and is well-versed in chapter affairs and how they relate to AALL. It will be a pleasure to have her as our Executive Board visitor in Montgomery.

The annual meeting, April 13-16, will have some wonderful social events to accompany a wonderful education program. The Thursday night opening reception will be held at the Capital City Club in the AmSouth Bank Tower. On Friday night there will be a reception at the Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts. The reception will be followed by a performance of "All My Sons" by Arthur Miller in the Octagon at the Alabama Shakespeare Festival.

I would like to thank the Nominations Committee, Susan Lewis-

Somers, Donna Bausch and Ismael Gullon, for their efforts in lining up some great candidates for this year's election of officers. The ballots will go out in January. The slate for this year is the following:

Vice-President/President-Elect

Anne Klinefelter, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Law Library.

Jennifer Sekula, College of William & Mary, MarshallWythe Law Library.

Treasurer

Jack Bisset, Washington & Lee University School of Law Library.

Linda Tesar, Vanderbilt University, Alyne Queener Massey Law Library.

Member at Large

Virginia Smith, Womble Carlyle Sandridge & Rice (Winston-Salem, NC).

Linda Davis, Georgetown University, Edward

Florida

University of Miami

David Hollander is the new Reference/Instructional Services Librarian at the University of Miami Law Library. David recently received his Master of Library Science from Pratt Institute School of Information and Library Science, and he received his J.D., cum laude, from Fordham University School of Law in 2001. David was an Associate in the General Litigation Practice area at Jones Day in New York City. He was also in the Journalism and Near Eastern Studies graduate program at NYU from 1996-97 and graduated from Rutgers University with Highest Honors in 1996.

Mark Plotkin joined the University of Miami Law Library as the Reference/Internal Instructional Services Librarian. Before moving to UM, Mark worked at the Miami-Dade Public Library in the Social Science/Humanities department. He also worked in the U.S. Department of Justice Libraries and the U.S. Supreme Court Library. Mark received an MSLS from Catholic University and a BA from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

Mississippi

Mississippi College School of Law

Jarrod W. Taylor has joined the Mississippi College School of Law Library as Research/Instructional Services Librarian. He resides in Brandon with his wife, Leslie Leigh Taylor, and, one son, Rhett Watkins Taylor. After attending Mississippi State University as an undergraduate, he earned his law degree at Mississippi College School of Law in 2004.

South Carolina

University of South Carolina

The University of South Carolina's Coleman Karesh Law Library is pleased to announce the arrival of two new team members:

Terrye Conroy joins us as a Reference Librarian. After library school, Terrye worked as Research Director for Berry, Quackenbush & Stuart, P.A. in Columbia. She received her BS from Winthrop College and her JD and MLIS degrees from the University of South Carolina.

Michael Miller joins us Media Resources Specialist. Michael has a substantial background in educational support and comes to us from Allen University, where he expects to graduate in May of 2005 with a Bachelor of Science degree.

THE CALL FOR PAPERS HAS BEGUN

Have you been thinking of writing an article of interest to law librarians? Maybe you just need a push to get started? Whether for fame or for fortune, this is your chance to enter the AALL/LexisNexis™ Call for Papers Competition.

The AALL/LexisNexis Call for Papers Committee is soliciting articles in three categories:

- Open Division for AALL members and law librarians with five or more years of professional experience
- New Members Division for recent graduates and AALL members who have been in the profession for less than five years.
- Student Division for budding law librarians still in school. (Students need not be members of AALL)

The winner in each division receives $750 generously donated by LexisNexis, plus the opportunity to present his or her paper at a special program during the AALL Annual Meeting in San Antonio, Texas. Winners' papers will also be considered for publication in the Association's prestigious Law Library Journal.

For more information, a list of previous winners and an application, visit the AALL website at http://www.aallnet.org/about/award_call_for_papers.asp. Submissions must be postmarked by March 1.

If you have any questions, please contact any member of the AALL/LexisNexis Call for Papers Committee: Chair, Virginia Davis, davis@uh.edu; Renee Rastorfer, rrastorfer@law.usc.edu; or Patricia Wellinger, pwellinger@law.du.edu

2004-2005 LUCILE ELLIOTT SCHOLARSHIP

Is there money in your future? You may qualify for a scholarship to the next SEAALL Annual Meeting in Montgomery, AL in 2005. The Lucile Elliott Scholarship program grants individual awards based on need and the actual cost of the activity for which the applicant is seeking assistance.

The application form is available in this issue of the newsletter. You may include additional information on a separate sheet, if you feel it is relevant to your application. The Lucile Elliott Scholarship Guidelines are on page 16. These guidelines are the criteria the Committee will use in evaluating your application. Applications must be postmarked no later than January 15, 2005.

Award recipients will be required to either volunteer for and serve on a SEAALL committee or to report on how their scholarship money was used by writing a brief article describing their experience for the Chapter newsletter, the Southeastern Law Librarian. Recipients who decide to write an article will be contacted to choose specific meeting sessions to report on, in order to avoid duplication of information in the newsletter.

LUCILE ELLIOTT SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES

The Lucile Elliott Scholarship fund was established to provide financial aid for any purpose reasonably designed to improve one's career in law librarianship. Part of the purpose of these awards is to encourage recipients to remain in the profession.

Applicants must be paid members of the Southeastern Chapter of AALL at the time the application is completed. Scholarship Committee members are ineligible to receive scholarships during their tenure on the Committee. Applicants who have received a Lucile Elliott Scholarship within the previous three years are ineligible to receive a scholarship. Five points will be deducted for each previous SEAALL scholarship received by an applicant.

In selecting the scholarship recipients, the Committee will consider the following factors:

1. Length of membership in SEAALL - The Chapter wishes to encourage the participation of its newer members (3 years or less). Therefore, when the applicant pool permits, scholarships will be awarded on a 70:30 newer members to continuing members ratio.
2. Participation and service to the library profession - This is demonstrated by participation in committees, sections, programs, projects, etc. of professional associations.
3. Intended use of scholarship - Scholarships may be used to provide financial aid for any purpose reasonably designed to improve one's career in law librarianship. Preference shall be given for attending any activity sponsored by the Southeastern Chapter.
4. Lack of financial assistance from employer.
5. Letters of recommendation.

- d) Description of your participation in and service to the profession (for example, service as an officer or committee member in a professional library organization; active participation in workshops, seminars or other educational programs).

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION FROM AT LEAST TWO INDIVIDUALS (WHO ARE NOT MEMBERS OF THE SEAALL SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE) MUST ACCOMPANY THIS APPLICATION.

One letter must be from another member of the Southeastern Chapter, and one letter must be from your supervisor, if applicable. If not applicable, then one letter should be from a major client. The letters should comment on your record of and/or potential for service to the profession, and should describe how receipt of a SEAALL scholarship would improve your career in law librarianship.

PLEASE READ AND SIGN THE FOLLOWING:

If the correct answers to any of the above questions change materially after submission of this application, I shall immediately notify the Chair of the Scholarship Committee.

If I receive a SEAALL scholarship and for any reason I cannot participate in the activity listed in question #4, I shall immediately return the money to the SEAALL Treasurer, who will notify the Scholarship Committee.

In the event funds are received for the same activity from AALL or an AALL-affiliated source, I shall accept only one such grant.

Date: _____

NEW STUDENT CENTER AT MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE OF LAW

Mississippi College School of Law has broken ground for a new 10,000 square foot Student Center on its campus at 151 East Griffith Street in downtown Jackson. The Center will house study areas, the campus bookstore, a food service area and a large conference space holding 300 seats.

This latest addition to the law school follows closely on the recently completed 18,000 square foot classroom addition, the renovated library, and the new student parking lot. The goal of Dean Jim Rosenblatt is to have the entire campus completed by the fall of 2005.

SEAALL IS YOU!

Are you satisfied with what SEAALL has done for you and your library so far? Do you wish for more? Do you see things in need of change in SEAALL? A volunteer organization such as ours is only as good as the efforts put forth by those in it. SEAALL has a long and honorable reputation for being an AALL Chapter with an abundance of intelligent and professionally active members. That reputation can be darn tough to maintain unless motivated people continue to make room in their busy lives to serve on and lead the committees that make things happen in SEAALL.

So what's in it for you? At the annual meeting, while the educational programs may help you in your work, it's difficult to make long lasting connections with other librarians in all the other types and sizes of law libraries. Just a waved "hi" or a quick "glad to meet you" while running off to sessions, events, and buffet tables doesn't help you to really "network." In contrast, in committees you become more acquainted with other librarians by working with them through a whole year or more, rather than just sitting with them at a breakfast or reception table for an hour or two. Why should this matter? Finding and giving information is our stock in trade. Knowing whom to ask can be just as important as what to search. Your network of outside colleagues can be a job saver (or finder). In addition, if you find yourself on a career plateau, committee work can give you the stimulus, challenge, or contacts you may need.

Please fill out the committee volunteer form as soon as you can. I hope to begin to assemble new committees before the 2005 annual meeting to enable the old committee members better to pass on their knowledge and documentation at that meeting to the new members.
