Dear Mary:

Based on the suggested form of a petition received from Frances Farmer, I have filled in the details:

"Pursuant to the provisions of Article V of the By-Laws of the American Association of Law Libraries, the undersigned, who are members of the American Association of Law Libraries, hereby apply for permission to establish a Chapter of the Association in the states of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, Puerto Rico, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, such Chapter to be known as the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries.

This statement will have to be signed by at least ten individuals.

I trust that you as president will take care of the missing details in the Constitution and By-Laws submitted to you.

Sincerely,

Kate

Dear Mary:

I have gone over the suggested changes in the proposed constitution and by-laws.

1. The name
I don't see any reason why we should not use Southeastern Chapter American Association of Law Libraries since we are going to apply as a chapter and not as an affiliate and this constitution will not become effective until we have acquired chapter membership. If that does not meet with your approval then the name of the group should be Southeastern Law Library Association and after approval by the AALL we will have to add, chapter of the AALL.

I therefore suggest to call the group in the constitution as well as in the by-laws Southeastern Law Library Association.

2. Definition of region
In Article 2 add the following sentence: "This Southeastern region includes the following states: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, Puerto Rico, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia and such additional states as may be added to it by the Southeastern Association of American Law Schools".

3. By-laws
I understood that we would not decide as yet about finances. Section 2 as presently drafted seems a little ambiguous to me particularly I do not understand the connection between 1 and 2 unless you have decided to raise chapter dues independent of our membership dues in the AALL. Out of individual dues of $7.00, $1.00 goes to the chapter. I cannot find anything in the by-laws about refund for institutional members, but if such are given on the same basis as for active members then Section 1 means the source of income derived from the AALL and can stand.

Do you mean to empower the chapter to raise additional dues of not less than $1.00 per AALL member? If you want to leave it open, however, Section 2.2 would be included in section 2.4.

Section 2.3 - It is absolutely unclear how much a member has to pay. I believe that there should be a relationship between the AALL dues and the chapter dues which should either be expressed in percentages of the AALL dues or in dollars and cents. Since the chapter members do not enjoy any of the privileges of the members of the AALL, their dues should be less than $7.00 and should be more than $1.00. Perhaps we can derive at a figure; if not, I suggest that we make a general statement that the chapter will determine the dues to be paid by members. We would also have to decide whether we will provide for various types of memberships of the AALL. I therefore suggest the following Section 2:

Income of the Association shall be derived from the following sources:
1. American Association of Law Libraries refund of institutional and personal membership dues
2. Dues paid by members of the Chapter in the amount to be determined by the Association
3. Assessments or other means as may be deemed necessary and after approval by the Association

These are only of course my own suggestions. I believe that we will have to change the by-laws by further additions with respect to election procedure and eligibility of members for office but that can come after we get going.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Kate

Miss Sarah Leverette, Law Librarian
University of South Carolina
Columbia, S. C.

Dear Sarah:

I have taken the proposed Constitution and By-laws to the duplicating office to have 100 copies made of them. I thought that would give us enough to send one copy out and still have some copies on hand at the time of the meeting. And speaking of the meeting, don't you think that we should start to do some serious thinking on the subject.

I have just checked with the extension division here and they tell me that we can make tentative arrangements subject to the approval of the Chancellor for a meeting here. I asked about accommodations for Negroes if they came and was told that there was a possibility of dormitory space or private accommodations in Chapel Hill. As for eating, we can eat together at the University cafeteria or have a luncheon or dinner there.

It seems that perhaps the best arrangements that we can make for a meeting would be here. If it is at all possible, we should get together on this very soon. Would you be able to come up soon so we could make tentative arrangements subject to the approval of the Chancellor?

I don't want to seem to be making all these plans without your approval and actually I haven't made any. I'm just trying to see what we can do here. If you have any suggestions, complaints, etc., they will be very much appreciated. As far as transportation and expenses for you to come, maybe the treasury could stand to reimburse you, and since it seems that the best arrangements may be worked out here, it would be best for you to come up if you possibly can.

I hope that things have been going well with you, Jean, and Georgia. Give them my regards, please and tell them to come along with you. Also please give my regards to the Dean.

I hope to see you very soon.

Love,

Mary W. Oliver
Assistant Law Librarian
Miss Jane Oliver, President
Southeastern Chapter
American Association of Law Libraries
Georgia State Library
Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Jane:

Enclosed is a tentative draft of a cover letter and a list of the recommended changes made in the Constitution and By-Laws of the Southeastern Chapter at the April meeting.

It is my understanding from the minutes that this is the form on which the Chapter agreed for mailing out the proposed drafts for voting purposes. Under this procedure the mailing would consist of a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws with the list of recommended changes attached and a ballot for a "Yes" or "No" vote. In other words, the actual incorporation of these changes would be made after the vote was taken.

Will you please look on page 3 of your copy of the Minutes, the last two paragraphs, and see what you think about the inclusion of the material on Article I, Section 2(b), and Article III on Elections in the list of changes. Of course, the usual procedure is to set out the amount of the dues in the By-Laws. However, from the Minutes it does not appear that there was a specific directive that this be spelled out in Article I, Section 2(b). It probably would be wise to include it. Though the matter on Article III, Elections, was taken care of by Article V, Section 2, it might be best to include it as a change in the By-Laws so that the election procedure would be clearly spelled out. Mary suggested this in her letter to me after checking the Minutes. Since, if adopted, the final draft of the Constitution and By-Laws will incorporate these changes, I felt that I could not decide this on my own.

Please do not hesitate to change the cover letter, list or anything that you think needs revision.

Thanks again for doing the mimeographing and mailing job as I certainly would be caught short with no accessible facilities here. I am keeping the beach trip in mind.

Sincerely yours,

Sarah Leverette, Secretary-Treasurer
S. E. Chapter, A.A.L.L.

Dear:

At the second meeting of the Southeastern Chapter, American Association of Law Libraries, held at Chapel Hill, North Carolina, April 28-30, 1955, the agenda included submission of the proposed Constitution and By-Laws of the organization to the attending members for adoption or rejection. However, it was the consensus of the members present that their number was insufficient to cast a representative vote on these items. It was decided that the Constitution and By-Laws be discussed by those present, acting somewhat as a committee of the whole, and that any changes resulting therefrom be considered a part of the Constitution and By-Laws and submitted to the entire membership for final adoption or rejection by mail vote.

Enclosed is a copy of the proposed Constitution and By-Laws to which is attached the list of recommended changes. Please note that your vote is to be cast for or against adoption of the proposed Constitution and By-Laws as revised by these changes. An affirmative vote indicates approval of the proposed Constitution and By-Laws as they would appear with the suggested changes incorporated therein.

Sarah Lanier, Secretary
Treasurer
Southeastern Chapter, A.A.L.L., Law School Library, University of South Carolina, Columbia, S.C.

Southeastern Chapter, A. A. L. L.

Dear Sarah:

This is in response to your letter of May 18 concerning changes in the Constitution

Article V, Sec. 1. According to my notes, Minnette suggested that the President-Elect should serve as Vice-president. This sounds more or less logical even though I think it is generally assumed that a President-Elect serves in this capacity.

It is my impression that Minnette's suggestion about sending cards to determine our membership list, having been made before the Newsletter idea materialized, was superseded by the Newsletter idea. Wasn't it our final conclusion that the Newsletter could be made to serve as the official medium of communication between members and prospective members, for all purposes, or at least, for most all purposes. I feel that the newsletter should be sent to all members and prospective members for a certain length of time. After that those who have signified no interest in our organization can be dropped from the mailing list.

Your interpretation of the discussion covering nomination of officers seems to me to be correct. As well as I remember the basic idea was that the membership should be given an opportunity to make suggestions to the nominating committee before it makes its final recommendations.

I have always had great admiration for composers of minutes but I don't think I have ever read any as accurate and complete as yours. How do you do it?

I have written Marian Gallegher about the possibility of scheduling a chapter meeting at Chicago but have not heard from her - principally because I haven't had time. I kept hoping we would get a copy of the agenda but none has come to me as yet so I went ahead and wrote Marian. Will let you know promptly what I hear from her.

There is some talk to the effect that our legislature will be called into special session the week of July 5th. In that case, I will not be able to go to Chicago. However my assistant, Mr. Folger, will be there as he is going up to the Institute, having been awarded one of the Matthew Bender Scholarships. We are real pleased over this.

If there is anything I should be doing in connection with the Chapter, be sure to let me know.

Sincerely,

State Librarian
