Dear Wes:

Thanks very much for agreeing to serve as chair of the SEAALL Publications Committee for 1987-1988. Enclosed is a list of the members of your committee with their professional affiliations.

I think the plans that were formulated last year are an excellent beginning framework for a new committee. As progress continues on the projects which are "in the works", I hope we can pull some of the new people on the committee into the planning stages of other projects, creating a continuity for succeeding committees.

I have asked each committee chair to see to the preparation of information for you on the activities and procedures of each committee. I also told them you could provide samples if they needed some guidance.

I suggested to Tim Coggins that he coordinate with you any further work on the practice bibliographics. I would like to see the remaining states appear in the Newsletter at least.

As we discussed in the Board meeting, Larry will be preparing some form of supplement for the membership directory. I'm not sure this falls under the jurisdiction of your committee but if you have extra people who need a job, you may want to check in with him. I have also asked Hilary Burg of the Membership Committee to work with him on this.

Should you need to publicize any of your activities, I am enclosing the copy deadlines for the Southeastern Law Libraries and for the AALL Newsletter Chapter Column. Please coordinate any items placed in the AALL Newsletter with Steve Hinckley, Chair of the Chapter's Publicity & Public Relations Committee.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Hazel L. Johnson
President
