Dear Jack:

I hope you have been able to send the letters to the library school deans as you indicated you would on the telephone. I haven't yet received any copies of letters, so I hope they're just delayed in the mail. Should you have any response from the North Carolina schools, Connie Matzen of Smith, Anderson, Blount, Dorsett et al in Raleigh has offered to assist. She indicated that she could speak to a class or do whatever we needed. I think she would be very good. We should, however, touch base with Carol Nicholson of UNC prior to contacting Connie. As I told you on the phone earlier, it is my understanding that Carol has a continuing relationship with the students at North Carolina Central University. I am sending the enclosed letter to Connie thanking her for her generous offer, particularly in light of the fact she is not even a member of this committee.

I look forward to receiving a report on the status of your efforts and copies of your letters in the near future. Should you feel that you will be unable to complete this or any of the Committee's projects, please let me know as soon as possible so that I may recruit a member who has a somewhat lighter load than you.

Sincerely,

Hazel L. Johnson
