Since 1913, the Kentucky Law Journal has published scholarly works of general interest to the legal community. The Journal is produced by students of the University of Kentucky College of Law under the direction of a fifteen-person editorial board and with the advice of a faculty member.

We welcome unsolicited submissions. Submissions must be typed double spaced with footnotes. Citations should generally conform to The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (19th ed. 2010); the Chicago Manual of Style (16th ed. 2010) is recommended for non-citation stylistic guidance. The author's résumé or a brief biographical statement should accompany the manuscript. Manuscripts will not be returned unless accompanied by a return envelope and postage. Send all submissions to:

Electronic submissions are also accepted through the ExpressO online service.

The editing process will be facilitated by sending articles in Microsoft Word format. Any required graphics should consist of high-resolution black-and-white line art provided as separate eps or tiff files.

Except as otherwise provided, the author of each article in this issue has granted to the Journal a nonexclusive license to publish, reproduce, distribute, and use the article in print or electronic form. The Journal hereby authorizes the reproduction of article(s) to be made for classroom use in a nationally accredited law school, provided that (1) author and journal are identified, and (2) proper notice of copyright is affixed to each copy. The views expressed in the articles, etc., do not necessarily represent the views of the Journal.

Communications of an editorial or business nature may be addressed to Kentucky Law Journal, University of Kentucky, College of Law, Lexington, KY 40506-0048. All notifications of change of address should include old address and new address, including zip code. Please inform us one month in advance to ensure prompt delivery.
