Dear Ms Sexton:

Your letter of June 9th to Dr. Marilyn Miller was forwarded to me, as I am the faculty member who is liaison to the North Carolina chapter of the Special Libraries Association and teach the special libraries course. Our department does not sponsor a 'career day' as such, nor do we provide in-depth presentations during our 'foundations' course. However, I am always delighted to have practicing librarians from a variety of types of special libraries talk to my special libraries class.

This course, LIS 657-Special Libraries, is taught only in the Spring semester, during the daytime so that students could visit a variety of libraries during work hours. Perhaps it would be possible to arrange a site visit to one of your member’s libraries during the spring of 1993? We usually have about 8 to 15 students registered for the course, so that it is not an unwieldy group. If any of your members are willing to host such a visit in the Greensboro area, I would be more than happy to arrange this opportunity for the students.

Thank you very much for your letter, and your interest in promoting law librarianship to educational institutions. I look forward to hearing from you regarding the possibility of incorporating this area in my curriculum for LIS 657.

Sincerely,

Beatrice Kovacs, DLS
