Dear Sarah:

I am pleased to appoint you to the Scholarship Committee of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries for 1992-1993. If for any reason you cannot accept this appointment, please contact me before the committee lists are finalized on August 15, 1992. I appreciate your interest in working for the Southeastern Chapter. A chapter can only be strong if its membership is vital and involved, and the Southeastern Chapter has a proud tradition of commitment and service. I am confident that we will uphold that tradition during the coming year. If you have any concerns that you would like addressed before the meeting in San Francisco or at the meeting, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Ed Edmonds
Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Director of the
