I hope many of our members were able to attend AALL in Seattle. The SEAALL Meeting was a great time to catch up with old and new SEAALL friends. Many of our members are serving or chairing one of our committees. It is wonderful to be associated with such a vibrant group. During this past year, SEAALL was very proud to contribute to the George A. Strait Minority Scholarship Fund.

We are looking forward to the 2004 meeting in Richmond, VA on March 25th-28th. Tim Coggins and Hazel Johnson are great at planning meetings and the Richmond meeting will be no exception. There will be interesting programs and fun social events. Mike Petit and his program committee are in the process of planning the educational programs. If you have any ideas, let Mike know.

A huge thanks goes to Ismael Guillen, our Treasurer, for taking care of our finances. He has spent considerable time with our records. Maureen Eggert continues to do a very fine job as our Secretary. Roy Balleste has also done a fantastic job with our website. There is a small task force that is looking into enhancing our website by possibly adding our membership list to the site. If anyone has any improvements to the website that you would like to see, contact Roy at St. Thomas. Jennifer Sekula and her Nominations Committee will be looking for a few good candidates to fill next year’s positions. If they contact you, say, “sure, I would love to serve.”

Remember to mark your calendars for the 2004 SEAALL meeting in Richmond, March 25th-28th. You will not want to miss it!!

Spring April 30, 2004
Summer July 31, 2004
Fall October 30, 2004
Editor's Note —

This is our first attempt at an online newsletter and to be honest it is a rough start. We hope to dress it up more and offer more content in the future. As an attempt to pacify the masses, we're running a contest this issue to see who knows whom. As a reward, we're offering a bottle of Jefferson Vineyard's best wine from our very own backyard in Charlottesville, Va. to the first entry who can identify all the people in the photos from pages 9 to 12. Send your entries to me, Micheal Klepper at mtk@virginia.edu with the subject line SEAALL PHOTOS and the names along side the appropriate number. We'll tag all the photos in the next issue along with the winner's name. Everyone is eligible, even if you sent the pictures. Best of luck.

Southeastern Law Librarian (ISSN 0272-7560) is the official publication of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries. It is published quarterly and is distributed free to all SEAALL members.

Editorial comments or submissions should be sent to:

Micheal Klepper

Loyola University Chicago

An era will end at Loyola University Chicago Law School in August when Francis R. "Bob" Doyle retires as Director of the Law Library, a post he has held for twenty-five years. Bob’s career in law libraries began in 1955 at Harvard University. He also worked at the Middlesex County Law Library in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and the University of California Berkely Boalt Hall Law Library before coming to Loyola. Bob has been active throughout his career in the American Association of Law Libraries, the Chicago Association of Law Libraries, and other regional chapters. Bob published three editions plus interim supplements of Searching the Law, and four editions plus interim supplements of Searching the Law, the States. He has written articles and bibliographies on library design, computer networking in libraries, drug testing, public school finance, and redlining.

Bob has been awarded the Outstanding Lifetime Achievement in Law Librarianship Award by the Chicago Association of Law Libraries. In July, the American Association of Law Libraries will present him with the Marian Gould Gallagher Distinguished Service Award at its Annual Meeting in Seattle.

We will all miss Bob, his unfailing generosity of spirit, his sense of humor, and his dedication. Please join us in thanking him for all his years of service and wishing Bob and his wife Nancy all the best in their next adventures.

The faculty and staff of the Coleman Karesh Law Library at the University of South Carolina School of Law is pleased to announce that Nancy Brooks Miller has joined us as our Head of Cataloging. Nancy comes to us from the Albert E. Jenner, Jr., Memorial Law Library at the University of Illinois College of Law at Champaign-Urbana. She received her M.S.L.I.S. from the University of Illinois in 1995. We are excited to have her on our team.

Virginia

Appalachian School of Law

Rebecca Belcher has been promoted to the position of Library Circulation Manager. She has also been accepted into the distance education program of the School of Information Sciences at the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. She will begin her quest for her MSIS this August.
It's March 25th, 2004 - Where are you?

We hope you will be in Richmond, VA at the 2004 SEALL Annual Meeting. The Program and Local Arrangements Committees are currently working out details to make this an enjoyable and educational visit to Virginia's capital.

The meeting will be based at the Omni Hotel located in the heart of Richmond's business district. This location is mere steps away from the shops, restaurants and entertainments of historic Shockoe Slip and Shockoe Bottom; a short walk to the State Capital building, the James River and Richmond Canal Walk; and a short drive to the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, Lewis Ginter Botanical Gardens, Maymont, Agecroft Hall and other Richmond area attractions. For more information on the Richmond area, visit the "Historic Richmond Region" website at http://www.richmondva.org/.

Mark your calendars now - March 25th -27th, 2004 - and watch for further details and registration information in the SEALL newsletter and at the SEALL website http://www.aallnet.org/chapter/seaall/2004/index.html. We look forward to your visit!
