4-1-1987

Robert A. Aken

University of Kentucky, robaken@uky.edu

Follow this and additional works at: https://uknowledge.uky.edu/libraries_facpub

Part of the Collection Development and Management Commons, and the Sports Studies Commons

Click here to let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Repository Citation

https://uknowledge.uky.edu/libraries_facpub/192

This Review is brought to you for free and open access by the University of Kentucky Libraries at UKnowledge. It has been accepted for inclusion in Library Faculty and Staff Publications by an authorized administrator of UKnowledge. For more information, please contact UKnowledge@lsv.uky.edu.

Notes/Citation Information
Published in Library Journal, v. 112, issue 6, p. 159.

© 1987 Library Journal. All rights reserved.

The copyright holder has granted the permission for posting the article here.

This review is available at UKnowledge: https://uknowledge.uky.edu/libraries_facpub/192

Parents, young athletes, coaches, and counselors will welcome this unique, comprehensive directory to sport camps in the northeastern U.S. and Canada (with some European coverage). Three other regional editions (the Midwest, South, and West), as well as a national directory, will bring the total listing to more than 4000 sport camps. In addition to the major sports, many minor sports are included (e.g., drum majoring, lacrosse, scuba, and windsurfing). Each entry lists (when available) location, facilities, staff, dates, costs, medical care, insurance, equipment needs, and application procedure, in addition to a narrative description. The camps have provided the information, but the editors have not added evaluative commentary. In both regional and national editions, these convenient and inexpensive directories will be published annually.—Robert Aken, Univ. of Kentucky Lib., Lexington