Presidential Ponderings

SEAALL President

Pamela Melton

Associate Director for Library Administration - University of South Carolina School of Law

prmelton@law.sc.edu

Is it spring yet? This has been a long, cold, blustery winter in South Carolina and March finds me longing for some blue skies and warm days. It's baseball season and shivering under a blanket, bundled up in hat, scarf and gloves, is not my idea of the way one should watch baseball. It also makes scoring the game more difficult. But I will watch baseball and keep score, even in the freezing cold, confident that the sun will shine again. Play ball! Even though this is my last column, it feels more like the 7th inning stretch. It's been an honor and a pleasure, this past year, to be your President. Congratulations to our newly elected officers, Caroline Osborne, Vice-President, President Elect; Nichelle J. Perry, Secretary; and Melanie DuBard, Member-at-Large. Many thanks also to Ian Barksdale, Ryan Valentin, and Jaime Christopher for their willingness to serve the Chapter as candidates. Kudos to the Nominations Committee members, Emily Marcum, Steven Parks, and the chair, Scott Childs, for putting together a stellar slate of candidates.

The new officers will join Executive Board members Fran Norton (President Elect), Kate Irwin-Smiler (Treasurer), and Jennifer Frasier (Member-at-Large), who will continue to serve the chapter well. My heartfelt gratitude and appreciation goes to those members of the Board who are rotating off. I have thoroughly enjoyed working with them. Ed Hart will no longer have an official reason to pay attention to SEAALL matters, but as we have said to others who moved out of our territory, "Once a SEAALL member, always a SEAALL member." I am sure he will soon be as actively involved in SWALL as he has been in SEAALL, if he isn't already. Nick Sexton has been rock steady as our Secretary for the past two years, preparing the minutes, running our elections flawlessly, and offering valuable counsel on matters that have come before the Board. And Christine Sellers brought her extensive knowledge and her own special flair to the Member-at-Large position. In case you don't know, the Members-at-Large have the task of choosing the menu for the SEAALL reception at AALL. Last year, they outdid themselves!

I urge you to respond when Fran Norton issues his call for volunteers. Service on a SEAALL committee is a great way to get to know other members and to contribute to the overall good of the chapter and the profession. Special thanks are due to Carol Watson, who has done yeoman work on the revision of the SEAALL Handbook. The newest (and much improved) version will be available soon. If you have any questions about who does what and how things are done in SEAALL, the Handbook is the go-to source.

Registration is open for SEAALL 2014, April 3-5, in Knoxville, Tennessee. Reba Best, Katherine Marsh, and the Local Arrangements Committee and Fran Norton and the Program Committee are working hard and have organized a meeting that will offer professional development and networking opportunities for everyone. I look forward to seeing lots of you at the Institute, Show Your Career Who's Boss, and at the main conference, New Frontiers.

THE ANNUAL MEETING WILL BE HERE IN LESS THAN A MONTH!

A few reminders and points of interest:

- 1) Register here for the conference, if you haven't already done so.
- 2) Don't forget to donate to the Dolly Parton Imagination Library, this year's service project.
- 3) Get ready for a fascinating keynote address by Dr. William M. Bass, the well-known founder of the Forensic Anthropology Center at the University of Tennessee. Interesting trivia: Patricia Cornwell's crime fiction novel The Body Farm was inspired by Dr. Bass's work.

This year's headquarters hotel, the Crowne Plaza, is within easy walking distance of more than 25 non-chain restaurants and bars, boutiques, an independent bookstore, museums, theaters and other miscellaneous points of historical interest. Below are links to some area highlights.

Downtown:

1. Market Square, the historical heart of downtown, with plenty of dining, shopping, and people-watching options.
2. World's Fair Park, home of the SunSphere and the Knoxville Museum of Art.
3. The Old City, a mix of eclectic restaurants and shops.
4. Gay Street, home to theaters, museums, and locally-owned shops.

Proposed SEAALL Bylaws Amendments

Submitted by Edward Hart, Past President

At our annual business meeting in Knoxville, I ask that the membership vote on the approval of four amendments to our chapter's bylaws.

First, is to bring our Article IV: Anti-discrimination in line with AALL's with the addition of gender identity among the statuses for which membership or participation shall not be denied or abridged.

Second, the Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Executive Board, not just the President. This will increase the transparency of our selection process of candidates to run for chapter office.

Third, correction in the details about the term of the President to reflect it is for three years serving as Vice-President/President-Elect, President, and Past President.

Fourth, remove an unnecessary 'or.'

You can read the amended Bylaws in the following pages and also at the chapter's website:
http://www.aallnet.org/chapter/seaall/documents/SEAALLBylaws_AmendmentsMarked_Mar2014.docx
Please contact me if you have any questions or concerns about these amendments.

Please note: Because of the limitations of the software used for this newsletter, the following proposed bylaws are shown with the changes made. If you want to see what they would look like with the old language left in, please use the link shown above to look at the bylaws as they currently stand.
