1990 SEALL MEETING

An Anthology of Issues Facing Law Librarians

The 1990 SEALL Program Committee has organized a selection of programs for the Oxford, Mississippi meeting which should appeal to all chapter members. The programs begin Friday, April 6 at 9:00 a.m. and conclude Saturday, April 7 at 12:00 noon. Between those times, every Annual Meeting attendee will hear interesting ideas, discover practical applications, and be exposed to stimulating and challenging speakers.

The Program Committee selected "An Anthology of Issues Facing Law Librarians" as the theme, an obvious attempt to associate the programs with the historical and literary surroundings of Oxford, Mississippi. Additionally the Committee decided to focus two programs specifically on the "Law and Literature" theme in order to further accentuate the literary environs.

Scheduled programs include Professor John Cole of Mercer University and Professor Teresa Phelps of Notre Dame University speaking on Law and Literature; "PC Basics: Acts One and Two"; Stephen Dennis, Executive Director of the National Center for Historic Preservation discussing historic preservation law; and Claire Germain of Duke University Law Library on building a basic foreign/international law collection and research in those areas. Further information on the programs is available from Program Chair Tim Coggins of the University of North Carolina. Local Arrangements Chair Ellis Tucker of the University of Mississippi can provide details on registration and hotel accommodations.
