University of Florida College of Law
Gainesville, Florida

Dear Mrs. Taylor:

Mary and I have been discussing the financing of the Chapter Meeting of the American Association of Law Libraries to be held here October 29-31. We assumed when we set the registration fee that meals and entertainment for guests would come out of the treasury. I hope this meets with your approval. The deans of UNC and Duke Law Schools, the speakers and their wives and Miss Elliot, retired librarian here, will be our guests. If you think of anyone else who should be sent a special invitation, please let me know.

Since there are ample funds in the treasury, we wondered if we could lower the registration fee and defray part of the cost from chapter funds. Please let me know whether or not you think the chapter should underwrite part of the expenses or whether we should leave the registration fee as it is. Also please verify that we shall pay the guests expenses from the treasury.

I am looking forward to seeing you in Chapel Hill

Sincerely,

Kathleen Chespe
