Dear Caroline:

I called your house Friday, November 26 when I was in Williamsburg and the painter told me you were out of town until Monday.

I have read through the documents of the Scholarships Committee carefully two times but have found no answers to some of my questions, and I am concerned because Leah Chanin suggested that the announcements and applications be mailed by December 1 in one of her letters and by December 10 in another of her letters that were in the documents. If December 10 is the deadline, then I have to get busy. I realize you must be very busy so just a brief answer beneath the questions would be sufficient. I will begin work as soon as I hear from you.

Thank you very much for your time.

Sincerely,

Ann Fortenberry
