Dear Dean Vondran:

The annual American Association of Law Libraries meeting will take place in New Orleans, July 20-25. I hope you will share the enclosed information with your faculty and especially with your students.

The theme of the program is "Building Bridges", and because we want to build bridges with the lifeblood of our profession, students, AALL has reduced the full annual meeting rate for students.

Please note the registration information given in the accompanying packet. There are 48 program sessions on a diverse array of topics ranging from social and political issues to the practical problems of running our many different types of law libraries. The keynote address will be given Monday morning (July 22) by Patricia Glass Schuman, incoming president of the American Library Association. Students, members or nonmembers, may participate in the entire program or on a daily basis.

Please let your students and faculty know they are welcome and encouraged to attend this meeting. We anticipate that all attendees will leave New Orleans with the knowledge and enthusiasm to build many more bridges in their professional lives.

I have enjoyed corresponding with you this year. New SEALL committee assignments in July will mean that your "bridge" to SEALL will be handled by the 1991-92 committee member assigned to your school. I hope if you, your faculty or students have any questions about law librarianship, you will feel free to contact our organization. Our members are committed to building bridges with the library schools in our region.

Sincerely,

Martha Thomas
