Dear Mr. Houchins,

I am chairman of the Publicity and Public Relations Committee of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries. As our project this year, we are trying to make the legal profession more aware of law librarians and their role in the legal world. In order to do this, we are creating a brochure to be distributed to lawyers in the Southeast. We would like to have this brochure on display at the annual meeting of the bar association of your state. We would like to emphasize that we are not selling anything. We are doing this as a means of informing the legal profession about our role.

We are asking permission to send copies of the brochure to be distributed at the annual meeting. If it is permissible for us to do this, please let me know when your meeting is to take place and where to mail the brochures.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Ruth Weeks
