Dear Sarah:

Please forgive me for not answering your letter before, but when we got back from New Orleans there was a great deal of work to be done.

I would be very happy to accept the chairmanship of the Lucile Elliott Scholarship committee, and I wish you would contact Kate Wallach and ask her to send me the files and whatever information she thinks I might need.

I am very grateful for your thinking of me, and I will try to come up to the standard that Kate Wallach has set for all chairmans of this committee.

Sincerely yours,

Mario Goderich
