Dear Mary:

Thank you for the wonderful gift at the SEAALL Business Meeting. It was very nice of you, Diana and Alva to think about me. I hope that your year has started off successfully.

I am sending you quite a few materials that I thought might be helpful. Most of the materials from my files I have forwarded to Ed Edmonds for the SEAALL archives. Anything in this group that you do not need, please toss or send to Ed. I did send you most of the letters that I received during the year just as an indication of the items and type of correspondence that you might expect to receive.

The collection of materials should arrive shortly. I am also sending the vase that the Chapter won in the West Talent Show several years ago by UPS. It should arrive soon as well.

Once again, good luck. I know that you will do a wonderful and outstanding job. Let me know if I can help.

Sincerely,

Timothy L. Coggins

Dear Mr. Novak,

Your membership in the American Association of Law Libraries is a clear indication of your professional interest in and dedication to law librarianship. We would like to now extend an invitation to you to join your colleagues in Ft. Lauderdale, by also becoming a member of the Southeastern Chapter of AALL.

Please take a few minutes to look over the enclosed brochure. In addition to the benefits of receiving the quarterly newsletter and reduced registration fees for the annual Chapter meeting, membership in SEAALL can increase your opportunities to be more involved professionally. And because SEAALL is smaller than the national association, it’s a great way to make lasting contacts with people who may be facing work-related challenges similar to your own.

Thank you, Mr. Novak, for considering membership in the Southeastern Chapter of AALL. We look forward to hearing from you soon!

Sincerely,

Timothy L. Coggins
